English 09 (Intro to Literature) (2779)

Language Arts Core - High School - 9-12

Course Description

In Introduction to Literature, students develop their fundamental reading and writing skills while learning strategies to read fiction and nonfiction texts. They will read a variety of literary classics and poetry to identify literary elements, author's purpose, and context. Students will continue to refine their grammar skills and increase their vocabulary by exploring how language and punctuation are used to create meaning. They will conduct research by identifying credible sources and using them to support claims. They will learn how authors make claims and strengthen their writing skills by making and defending a claim using reason and evidence. Readings include: Romeo and Juliet, Frankenstein, The Declaration of Independence, Treasure Island, and The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.
