

Owlyghost's Terms of Service 2024

By commissioning me, you are agreeing to the terms presented in this document. It is up to the customer to read my TOS in complete detail before commissioning. Please contact me if you have any questions or need clarification! Thank you!

General info

1. I own the rights to my artwork. You may not use the artwork for mass distribution or any money-gaining purposes, including the creation and distribution of NFTs. You may use the artwork for personal reasons, such as art collecting, reposting to social media, or utilizing it in personal projects of your own, including both digital and physical. If you'd like to buy the rights to an art piece or would like art for reasons other than personal, or if you'd like clarification on this, talk to me!
2. I have the right to refuse/cancel a commission without giving a reason. If a commission is canceled by me, that customer will receive a FULL refund.
3. Approximate turnaround time is between 1 week to 1 month for still image drawings and 1 week to several months for animated commissions.
4. If you have a certain day you need your commission completed by, please let me know BEFORE I accept your commission! Price may increase depending on how fast you need it.
5. All commissions will be drawn in my own art style by default. If you'd like me to work with a different style or imitate aspects of a different style, please let me know before I begin! If you have any reference pictures or photos you'd like me to take inspiration from, please do not hesitate to send them to me!

Pricing, Payment, and Refunds

1. Payment is through Paypal ONLY (USD). Foreign exchange rates may apply to transactions involving other currencies; Please use a currency converter if needed.
2. Once I accept your commission, I will send an invoice to your Paypal email.
3. You must pay IN FULL before I begin your commission.
4. Payment plans are available and can be discussed!
5. You may only get a full refund if you ask for it BEFORE OR DURING the sketching stage. Partial refunds can be discussed past the sketching stage. If the commission is already complete, I will not give you a refund.
6. Your completed commission will be sent to you through email once you confirm it is finished.

Communication and Changes

1. I will send updates to you (with pictures) through the preferred messaging app and/or email. I will let you know when I've started your commission, and I will keep you updated as I work!

2. Please check your messages frequently after commissioning me so that communication goes smoothly! If you move accounts, change your username, or become inactive in any other way, please let me know! If you lose access to your account for any reason, please contact me via email (owlyghost8@gmail.com). If a month passes and I do not hear from you, I will cancel your commission.
3. Please let me know of any changes you'd like me to make to your commission during the process! I would like you to be happy with your commission, so please do not hesitate to tell me. Excessive or major changes past the sketching stage may result in a price increase, so again, please tell me changes you'd like as soon as possible!
