History:

Growing up in Charleston, SC where he was born, Caldwell's parents were particularly understanding and knowledgeable with their explanations whenever he had questions for them.

These experiences left him with a want for knowledge. However, this pursuit, along with his good-hearted nature, left him noticeably naive, which had been taken advantage of throughout his life.

After graduating highschool, in order to help afford his College tuition, Caldwell signed up to join the army, passing training and being deployed in 2019. After serving his term, Caldwell, in need of money to support his parents, signed up as a mercenary in a PMC.

In 2023, after being deployed to assist authorities in raiding a supposed illegal weapons warehouse, Caldwell and his squad were ambushed by various SCP-3199 instances. During their combat encounter, Caldwell's squad managed to terminate various instances, however the rest of them had left Caldwell's squad incapacitated, save for Caldwell himself.

Shortly thereafter, Insurgency forces arrived to assist, having intercepted intel regarding the warehouse. Impressed with his performance, the Insurgency offered both a job and a higher purpose to Caldwell, employing him as an Insurgent under the guise of a reassignment.

As an NCO, 'Streamline' believes whole-heartedly in the Insurgency's goal of utilizing anomalies to advance humanity and its technology.

Family:

(OOC SECTION):

GENERAL THOUGHTS:*DISLIKES:

Sarkics- They almost seem otherworldly. I understand very little about them, but all I know is that they're wholly unnatural and absolute evil.

NEUTRAL:

Foundation- I don't understand you people. So many possible applications using the anomalies contained, and yet all that is done is they're locked up and examined.

I don't hate any of you, despite what you may hear. I just wish you saw things the way we do. In the best of all possible worlds, we're all on the same side.

Chaos Insurgency- I've enjoyed my time in the Insurgency, I really have. The people are lovely. But I just can't get behind our methods. I know-I hope, the ends justify the means. The torture, and the occasional experimentation, I just can't bring myself to watch.

LIKES:

SSGT 'Anarki'- Bit of a loose cannon-pun intended. Seems to really love combat, along with that grenade launcher of his. In spite of this, he's a good conversationalist.

SGM 'Courier' - If I thought 'Anarki' was a loose cannon, Courier's definitely something else. Quite positive and upbeat, attributes I wish I shared. And that rocket prototype, yeesh. Lucky I got to you before you drowned.

DN FTL 'Sana'- Don't know what to make of you. For a supposedly uber-serious super secret Spec Op, you're quite warm and positive, much like Courier, just more professional. You seem to care about 'Rogue' too, and if he trusts you, I trust you.

TRUSTS:

1LT 'Rogue'- One of the few people in the Insurgency I trust wholly. And I'm honored that he shares that trust. I was so worried when the Foundation carted him off, but so relieved when I saw we managed to bring him back.
