

2024-2025 CAHS STUDIO

COURSE SELECTION INFORMATION

Please see the information below from the Counseling Department regarding course selection information for incoming and current CAHS Studio students and parents for the 2024-2025 academic school year. Course Selections will take place this year from Thursday, March 7th to Friday, March 15th.

On March 7th all incoming freshmen and transfer students are invited to attend an in-person orientation at 6pm in Caiman Hall. While your attendance is highly encouraged all the resources will be sent to you on March 8th.

In order to best meet the needs of all current CAHS students and families, the counseling department will be releasing grade-specific videos, as well as giving a visual presentation in grade-specific cohorts on Friday, March 8th. At that time, students will be given a worksheet to begin selecting their classes and will have the opportunity to ask questions. Students are encouraged to complete the worksheet and then talk with their parents about their selections. Upon completion of the worksheet, students will be able to submit their courses via the Google Form. (Links will be provided on March 8th)

All grade-level meetings will be recorded and uploaded to the

Counseling Resources Page on the CAHS Website.

If students still have questions or feel they need a short one on one meeting with their counselor before submitting their course selection, students may walk-in during normal school hours to the counseling department to meet with a member of our counseling team. Parents may also walk-in from 3 - 4pm Tuesday - Thursday, March 11-13th, to ask questions of a counseling team member.

The link for submitting courses for ALL students will go LIVE at 3:00pm on March 8th**

COURSE SELECTION RESOURCES

The counseling team has been working diligently to address ongoing questions and topics of discussion regarding scheduling classes for the coming school year. They will be releasing a capsule of digital resources (video and print) to support all students and parents during the course selection process.

Classes will be scheduled based on grade-level priority (seniors getting first priority, then juniors, sophomores, etc.) It is important that you complete your selections NO LATER than Friday, March 15th by 4:00 p.m. Selections made after this date will not receive priority.

Math Placement

New and Transfer Students will need to take a Math Readiness Test on either 4/29 or 5/6 at 1:30pm on campus. More details will be coming soon, but please save these dates.

(Current Classical Academies students will be taking their tests on their respective campuses)
