ABSTRACT These instructions give you guidelines for preparing papers for Economy & Informatics Journal. Use this document as a template or as an instruction set. Paper titles should be written in uppercase and lowercase letters, not all uppercase. In the abstract, please describe your paper using between 150 and 200 words. Use Times New Roman, 12, italic font style. The abstract should include three or four different keywords or phrases, as this will help readers to find it. The authors must follow the instructions given in the document for the papers to be published. You can use this document as both an instruction set and as a template into which you can type your own text.

2. CONTENT DETAILS

For regular text use Times New Roman, normal, size 12. For section names use New Roman, bold, size 12.

We recommend to use the formatting toolbar at the top of your Word window (for example, the style at this point in the document is "Text"). Highlight a section that you want to designate with a certain style, and then select the appropriate name on the style menu.

Figures and tables must have descriptive titles and consecutive numbering, respectively.

Figures and tables must be numbered using Arabic numerals. Figures and tables must be centered.

All figures, pictures and similar objects must be included in objects of type Microsoft Word Picture and centered. Table description is placed above them; picture description is placed below them. Description of pictures and titles must begin with type identification and number (e.g.: Fig. 1. or Table 1. – using bold font; description uses regular font). Each pictures or table must be placed as close as possible to the first reference in the text. Layout for each object must be "in line with text".

Please check all figures in your paper both on screen and on a black-and-white hardcopy. When you check your paper on a black-and-white hardcopy, please ensure that the colors used in each figure contrast well, the image used in each figure is clear and all text labels in each figure are legible.

Table 1 present details of the paper content, which must be respected in order to be published.

Table 1. Content details

Content	Details
Paper title	Centered paragraph, font size 14, bold.
Author(s)	Full name (last name all capitals) and affiliation (institution, city, country, email) – centered paragraph.
Paper abstract	Describe your paper using between 100 and 150 words. Use italic font style.
Keywords	Italic font, the lead word "keywords" also with bold font.
Content	Describe original solutions and experimental results analysis.

References	Use IEEE Citation Style. Use numbers enclosed in square brackets for each reference. All references have to be cited within the paper; otherwise they will be removed from the reference list.

All figures and tables must be referred in the paper.
Source code: if the paper includes sections of source code, it should be written with Courier New font, size 9, bold and properly indented, as in the following example:

<rdf:Description rdf:about="http://constructionfirm.com/maxTemperature">
    <rdfs:range rdf:resource="http://www.w3.org/2001/XMLSchema#unsignedInt"/>
    <rdfs:domain rdf:resource="http://constructionfirm.com/Brick"/>
    <rdf:type rdf:resource="http://www.w3.org/2002/07/owl#DatatypeProperty"/>
</rdf:Description>

Please do not end the section with a figure, table or code.
All hypertext links and section bookmarks will be removed from papers during the processing of papers for publication. If you need to refer to an Internet email address or URL in your paper, you must type out the address or URL fully in Regular font.

3. PUBLICATION PRINCIPLES

Authors should consider the following points:
1) Technical papers submitted for publication must advance the state of knowledge and must cite relevant prior work.
2) The length of a submitted paper should be commensurate with the importance, or appropriate to the complexity, of the work. For example, an obvious extension of previously published work might not be appropriate for publication or might be adequately treated in just a few pages.
3) Authors must convince both peer reviewers and the editors of the scientific and technical merit of a paper; the standards of proof are higher when extraordinary or unexpected results are reported.
4) Because replication is required for scientific progress, papers submitted for publication must provide sufficient information to allow readers to perform similar experiments or calculations and use the reported results. Although not everything need be disclosed, a paper must contain new, useable, and fully described information. For example, a specimen's chemical composition need not be reported if the main purpose of a paper is to introduce a new measurement technique. Authors should expect to be challenged by reviewers if the results are not supported by adequate data and critical details.

4. REVIEWING PROCESS

All papers will be subjected to peer review and are expected to meet standards of academic excellence. A blind review process will be used, employing 2 or 3 scientific reviewers. Author(s) will be notified about the outcome via email, using the declared address.
An author may not publish more than one papers per year in the Economy Informatics. The bibliography and references must comply with the above requirements. These are the eligibility criteria for the assessment process.

X. CONCLUSION

Paper should end with conclusions.
Papers should be sent as email attachments to editor@economyinformatics.ase.ro. Each paper must be accompanied by a signed and dated statement of the author(s), stating that the paper is an original work and neither the paper nor significant parts of it have been published or are under reviewing process for publication in another journal. The statement must be sent in original form or scanned in color and attached to the email. The statement also grants all copyrights for the paper to Economy Informatics.
