1. Acknowledgement of Participation

I understand that my child is voluntarily participating as a vendor in the Lyons Farmers Market Youth Booth program. This includes setting up, interacting with the public, and selling goods during market hours.

2. Assumption of Risk

I acknowledge that participation in an outdoor public market involves inherent risks, including but not limited to weather conditions, uneven surfaces, interaction with other vendors and attendees, and handling of materials or products.

I voluntarily assume these risks on behalf of my child.

3. Responsibility

I understand that youth participants are responsible for:

- Bringing their own tent, table, and materials
- Setting up and taking down their booth
- Handling their own products and transactions

I agree to support my child in being prepared and present as needed.

4. Liability Release

I release and hold harmless the Lyons Farmers Market, its organizers, volunteers, and affiliated partners from any liability, claims, or demands arising from participation in the Youth Booth program.

5. Conduct + Care

We agree to contribute to a respectful, safe, and welcoming environment for all participants, vendors, and visitors.

6. Media Release (Optional – you can remove if not needed)

I grant permission for photos or videos of my child's participation to be used for market-related promotional purposes.
