1. Introduction

- 1.1. This ruleset applies to all players competing in the TFT Northern Legends Swiss League. The ruleset focuses on: tournament structure, player conduct, player eligibility, and our general expectations for good sportsmanship. These rules adhere to RIOT's global player policy outlined in their TFT Rising Legends EMEA rules & regulations document.
- 1.2. There are no limits to the number of signups for this league.

2. Format

2.1. Tournament Structure

The Northern Legends Swiss League is a weekly league that will run on Tuesdays for nine (9) weeks from the 5th of December 2023 till the 13th of February 2024.

On every Matchday there will be 2 rounds held, with new lobbies generated for each round.

This league will use a Swiss format to generate fixtures (See 2.3)

After nine (9) weeks of competition, the top four (4) players in the League will be invited to the Circuit Finals. In the event of a repeat qualifier (i.e already qualified via GSC Qualifiers), the duplicate spot will be given to the next highest placed player in the Swiss standings.

2.2. Seeding

The first round of Week 1 is seeded based on the players ranked matchmaking ratings, on either their account from their most played region, with the highest ranked player receiving the highest seed and the lowest rank receiving the lowest seed. A snapshot of the players ranks will be taken once the sign-ups close.

2.3. Fixture Generation

Players in the tournament will be split into lobbies of up to 8 players each round. If there are not enough players to fill a lobby of 8 then players may be required to queue into matchmaking. The results of players not in the tournament will not be included when scoring the results of a fixture.

For the first round of week 1 only, players will be placed into lobbies using the snake seeding system (See 8.1).

For all other rounds the Swiss system will be used. In this system the top 8 seeds are placed in one lobby, the next 8 into the next lobby and so on. (See 8.2)

2.4. Scoring

Points for a fixture are distributed as follows:

1st=8pts, 2nd=7pts, 3rd=6pts, 4th=5pts, 5th=4pts, 6th=3pts, 7th=2pts & 8th=1pt.

From week 4 onwards, each round the top lobbies will have bonus points awarded to all players within them. The number of lobbies which are awarded bonus points and the number of bonus points awarded will be determined by the following guidelines.

Week 4-6: Top lobbies containing players from top 33% awarded 1 bonus point

Week 7-9: Top lobbies containing players from top 33% awarded an additional bonus point (Total of 2 bonus points), Lobbies containing players from next 33% are awarded 1 bonus point

For avoidance of doubt the cutoff for bonus points being awarded is inclusive. ie. If there are 4 lobbies, the top 2 lobbies will get the bonus point as lobby 2 contains players from the top 33%.

Any changes in points allocation will be mentioned in the announcements channel before matches start each week.

2.5. Tie-breakers

The tie-breakers for standings are applied in the following order:

- a) Average Lobby Number (Lower is better, A=1, B=2 etc.)

8. Appendix

8.1. Snake Seeded Lobbies

When snake seeding N lobbies the first N seeded players are placed in lobbies 1-N from lowest to highest. The next N players will then be placed in lobbies 1-N from highest to lowest. This pattern keeps alternating until all the lobbies are populated. See the below table for an example of how this would work for N=4 lobbies.

1	2	3	4
8	7	6	5
9	10	11	12
16	15	14	13
17	18	19	20
24	23	22	21
25	26	27	28
32	31	30	29

8.2. Swiss Seeded Lobbies

For Swiss seeded lobbies the top 8 seeds are placed into lobby 1, the next 8 seeds into lobby 2 and then the next 8 into lobby 3 and so on. See the table below for an example of how this would work for 32 players:

Lobby A	Lobby B	Lobby C	Lobby D
1	9	17	25
2	10	18	26
3	11	19	27
4	12	20	28
5	13	21	29
6	14	22	30
7	15	23	31
8	16	24	32

In the event players can not be evenly divided into lobbies of 8, multiple lobbies of 7 or fewer may be used. The priority will be given to having the top seeded lobbies full with the lobbies of 7 being distributed among the bottom lobbies first.
