

Mapping Out a New Europe

This map of Europe shows some of the territories which came up for discussion at Versailles.

Directions: Highlight the terms of the Treaty from the perspective of YOUR NATION in Yellow and the CORRECT terms in Green.

Issue	Option 1	Option 2	Option 3
What should happen to the colonies of the defeated nations?	They should be allowed to govern themselves	They should be divided up between Britain and France	They should be administered by the League of Nations until they develop self-government
What should happen to Alsace-Lorraine?	Germany should keep it	It should be returned to France	Placed under the control of the League of Nations
What should happen to the Rhineland?	Allied troops should remain there for 15 years, Germany banned from ever stationing troops there	Rhineland completely demilitarized and controlled by the League of Nations	Full control of the Rhineland returned to Germany
What should happen to Poland?	Polish territories should remain in German and Russian hands	Poland should be run by the League of Nations	Poland should become an independent country with access to the sea
What about the disputed port of Danzig?	Let the Germans keep it	Give it to Poland	Make it a free city
What should happen to Finland, Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia?	They should become independent nations	They should be run by the League of Nations	They should be returned to Russia
What should happen to Czechoslovakia?	It should become independent	It should be run by the League of Nations	It should be run by Austria
Who should take the blame for the war?	Germany	All the Central Powers	No one
How much should the Germans be made to pay the Allies in compensation (reparations)?	$12 Billion	$33 Billion	$100 Billion
What should happen to the German armed forces?	German armed forces restricted to pre-war levels	Conscription banned. German forces limited to 250,000 men, 40 battleships, 10 submarines and 90 planes	Conscription banned. Germans forces limited to 100,000 men and 6 battleships. No submarines, tanks or planes.
Should a League of Nations be formed?	No League of Nations	League of Nations with no power to enforce control over its members	League of Nations with power to put economic sanctions on its members

