

Character name: Niko

Age: 16

Vigilante name: phantom

Quirk type: stealth/direct

Quirk name: Stealth Surge

Quirk description: Stealth Surge enables you to cloak your entire body in a shimmering, translucent energy when you remain still, mesmerizingly blending into your surroundings. This transformation allows you to manipulate your movements subtly- the energy can also be released in bursts to propel you forward at high speeds, resulting in a rapid dash that seems to blur your outline. While in stealth, your body emits faint, colorful patterns that resemble the environment around you, creating a perfect illusion of invisibility that can confuse opponents.

Strength: Grants exceptional stealth capabilities allowing you to remain undetected even in crowded environments, making reconnaissance and surprise attacks possible.

Weakness: After prolonged use of the stealth cloak, users can experience severe fatigue requiring downtime to recover their energy.

Backstory: At 13, her parents died a tragic death, saving her from a villain attack, Niko ran away, blaming herself, she went searching for a home that could keep her safe and warm, accidentally running into the Vigilante known as EraserHead, after a while, EraserHead teaches her the ways of Vigilantes. Slowly becoming the Vigilante known as "Phantom"