

By Wesley

Jackie Robinson was the first african american to play major league baseball.he was born in Cario Georiga. he went to collige at ucla.he played in the majors on the dogersd.in world war II he was in the army.in the majors he was caled names,death threts and pitches thrown at his head.but he did not fight back because he had the guts to not fight back.jackie was scouted in the negro legues by the dodgers.on april 10, 1947 he broke the color barrier.that was one of the biggest moments in history.