I. Name

- A. Write a sentence declaring the name of your student group.

II. Membership

- A. Write a few sentences explaining how one becomes a member of your group: do they come to a meeting? Do they have to try out? Should be from a certain community?
- B. Explain how you will make students official members by including them in group operations: GroupMe, Google Drive, WesNest roster, etc.

III. Structure

- A. Explain the structure of the group: are there committees? A board? Officer titles? Horizontally run? Where and how does leadership sit? Are there specific roles for those who belong to different class years?

IV. Objectives

- A. Write a bit about what you want to cultivate on campus, and how your group in particular will be instrumental in doing that.
- B. Write a bit about how you envision, and will establish, longevity and long-term effectiveness of your club on campus.

V. Values

- A. Write about any defining principles that your organization will need to stay committed to over the years, in order to fulfill its intended mission. Are they ideological? Community-oriented?

VI. Events

IF YOU HAVE IT!

- A. Write about any events your group is committed to hosting on campus, their frequency, their objectives, and when they typically occur.
- B. If it will be helpful, explain a bit about how these events are typically put on: does a certain club leader host? Does the financial manager request money from certain sources? Explain that here, to lay it all out for future iterations of the event(s).

VII. Amendment of the Constitution

- A. Write about the procedure for when group members want to amend and update the constitution. Is there a certain time that this will happen? A certain committee that gets together? Be aware that updates like this should take place when your group is being renewed officially in WesNest, in either the Spring or early Fall.
