

Directions: 1) Determine the importance of the individual discussed in the primary and secondary sources you have analyzed 2) Create a gravestone/headstone for this person with their date of birth and death and a brief description about why they are important to their era, field, place, or community. 3) Explain which sources allowed you to corroborate this information through sourcing.

