

Subject: Speaking Proposal - Onyx White: From Adversity to Advocacy

Dear Esteemed Hosts,

I am Onyx White, and I am thrilled for the opportunity to share my compelling story and insights as a speaker at your upcoming event. Having grown up navigating crime-ridden Boston neighborhoods and spending over a decade in incarceration starting at age 16, I have emerged as an advocate for change.

My journey from adversity to advocacy has involved not just personal transformation, but also a commitment to addressing the root causes of crime, poverty, and systemic disadvantages. Drawing from my own experiences, I offer unique perspectives on these challenges and propose actionable solutions for positive change.

As someone who lived through and overcame difficult circumstances, I am passionate about sharing my journey. I have not only overcome my situation, but am actively engaged in helping others do the same. I have given multiple speeches to students and faculty from various colleges and universities, including but not limited to Boston University, as well as nonprofits like Justice for Housing. I have also spoken at Massachusetts prisons and correctional facilities. I am dedicated to raising awareness and driving reform within the criminal justice system.

My target audience includes those struggling with crime, poverty and systemic challenges, as well as individuals seeking to deepen their understanding of these issues and contribute to positive change. My speaking engagements aim to inspire, educate and empower, providing practical insights for both personal growth and community development.

I bring a unique blend of personal resilience and artistic expression as a musician, with GBH having produced a documentary showcasing my life's journey. This multifaceted approach allows me to connect with diverse audiences and convey the importance of love as a transformative force in overcoming adversity.

I am confident that my story and insights will resonate with your audience, leaving a lasting, positive impact on your event. I welcome the opportunity to discuss further details and collaborate to make a meaningful impact together.

Thank you for considering my proposal. I am eager to contribute to the success of your event.

Sincerely,

Onyx White
