

THE BASICS

What is Beach Brawl you ask? It's an angled kinda weekly efed!

We ask for created characters only. Results are going to be super quick, summarized and to the point. Shows will take place every week or every other week and every fifth show will be a supershow to blow off feuds and storylines. If you do want to do a segment, we ask that it is just a sentence or two that gets the point across instead of a fully written out promo.

While it is an angled fed we do ask that you sell results and hype your match on Twitter. Please tag the fed in hype and in photos to build up the match so we can see what you are saying.

The application will be listed below but a Universal Bio is even better if you have a link to one!

THE LORE

Beach Brawl is a new company run by Sprite. Each show takes place on the beach in different parts of the country and maybe even eventually the world. The crowd is all standing room around the ring with barriers protecting them from the action. Where does Sprite have the money to run it? Nobody knows but the company is all about fun. There is always a wide variety of food trucks around the crowd, along with a live DJ playing entrance songs and keeping the party going between matches. The company is based out of St Augustine, Florida.
