

001. my name is annie. ( or nell, i don't mind if you call me either tbh ) female, 21 +, and star wars officially ruined my life. more specifically, luke skywalker did. i generally am very, VERY slow with activity and my replies come in waves. ( \ tentatively accepting follow firsts*, but i may change my mind some time soon because i get easily overwhelmed. ) this blog will mainly be low and slow activity, and mainly reserved as a quiet place for me to rp when the muse strikes, whenever that may be. if you would like to write with me, either dm me or like a starter call, although i don't intend to post those often. I prefer plotting.

002. with regards to canon divergence, my blog is HEAVILY FOCUSED on LUKE BEING THE CHOSEN ONE. anakin skywalker was thought to be the chosen one, but luke is actually the true vessel from the prophecy ( in my portrayal ). this will be eluded to in my replies / posts / headcanons. this does not erase anakin BEING THOUGHT as the chosen one, the plot remains the same, only that the jedi thought anakin was the true chosen one, but misconstrued the prophecy as it was misinterpreted throughout the years. when padme gave birth to the twins, obi - wan sensed it in luke that he was meant to bring balance to the force – having a vision when holding luke, and such is the reason he sought to protect him / watch him.

* FOLLOWING, as stated before, i will not follow everyone and i will only rp with mutuals. i get overwhelmed very easily with a large following, so for my sake i will attempt to keep my dashboard relatively organized and quiet.

IF YOU CONTINUOUSLY FOLLOW AND UNFOLLOW I WILL HARDBLOCK.

i ask that you softblock when unfollowing, as i will do the same!

* MAINS + EXCLUSIVE, honestly, this blog is extremely private and i will most likely have mains and executives. as of right now, i'm accepting both under the condition that we have ongoing threads / spoken ooc / plotted ooc + ic ideas.

* LASTLY, if you ever want to start a conversation with me, the easiest way is just to send me a dm ( or send me a math meme, i thoroughly enjoy them. ) i tend to take social media breaks when my mental health needs it, so i'm offline sometimes! if you'd like to follow my twitter, don't hesitate to ask for the @! so long as we're mutuals, i'll be more than welcome to give it to you.

003. i will only rp luke during the episode four - six timeline and any other side comic that takes place between that time, should i have already read it. also, this DOES include plots that may take place during the mandalorian or the book of boba fett, and etc! as of right now, i have not watched the sequels and do not plan to... so i will not rp luke in that timeline. i ask that if you would like to plot anything from the sequels, that you ask beforehand! i will follow sequel blogs, but i ask that you do not assume luke will be written within the same plots / points in sequels.

004. generally, there is no emphasis on shipping. luke tends to distance himself from feeling too much. though, it is not impossible to ship romantically! it would need to be plotted and planned beforehand, as it would take quite a lot of development in order to proceed with a ship! * leia / luke and whatever the fuck happened in the original trilogy is nonexistent here. i will not tolerate any mentions of this and will hard block immediately if this is not taken seriously. I AM MULTI - SHIP & SHIP EXCLUSIVE WITH THOSE SPECIFIC PORTRAYALS.
