Discipline	“A young pianist with exceptional talent who possesses extraordinary technique and musical expressions...”- Ms. Ruth Slenczynska Born in Taipei, Taiwan. Chuan-Yi (Jenny) Lin began her piano studies at the age of 7. At the age of 16, she entered the affiliated senior high school of National Taiwan Normal University, where she received early piano instruction from Professor Susan Shu-Cheng Lin. Later, in June 2002, she graduated from The Music Department of National Taiwan Normal University with outstanding achievement. Her pursuit of excellence in piano performance led her to Germany, where she continued her training at the Musikhochschule Detmold from 2004 to 2011. During her time there, she achieved the Diplom (Kuenstlerische Instrumentalausbildung) with the best mark (1.0) and went on to earn the highest honors for her Solo Piano Performance Degree (Konzertexamen Solist). Throughout her academic journey, Jenny Lin has won numerous prizes in various piano competitions. Notably, she secured the second prize at the "2003 Mauro Paolo Monopoli International Piano Competition" and the third prize at the "2004 Marsala International Piano Competition". In addition to her studies and competition successes, Jenny Lin has furthered her artistic growth through participation in master classes by esteemed pianists and instructors, such as Prof. Dimitri Bashkirov, Pi-Hsien Chen, Leon Fleisher, Francesco Monopoli, Oxana Yablonskaya, Ruth Slenczynska, and Sergio Perticaroli. Carried from great performance and recognition, Lin took the piano coaching position and became a featured collaborative pianist in Musik Hochschule Detmold Konzertexamen Solist, during her years in Germany. Lin has also been a member of high-level courses in the international certificates for piano artists in Paris-Brussels, where she received valuable insights and guidance from notable musicians like Maestro France Clidat, Jean-Philippe Collard, Jerome Lowenthal, Michel Beroff, Nelson Delle-Vigne Fabbri, Philippe Entremont, and Robert Roux. Jenny Lin's talent and dedication have not only been recognized in her solo performances but also as a renowned chamber musician. She has given concerts with the National Taiwan Symphony Orchestra in Taiwan and performed recitals and concerts in both Taiwan and Europe, impressing audiences with her exceptional musicality. After completing her studies abroad, Lin returned to Taipei in 2011. After rotating teaching positions in the Music Department of various universities, Lin currently serves as Appointed Professor of Collaborative Piano at the
