

Joining the Peace Corps

An online group activity for OLA social studies students in grades 6 - 12. Can be substituted for other regular social studies assignments.

Join Mr. Huff and some of your fellow OLA students as you explore the United States Peace Corps, the experience it offers, and how to become a Peace Corps Volunteer yourself.

Registration required.

Register here

Timeline

- By Thursday, September 18 - Register for participation with Mr. Huff. He will send you a preparation activity.
- By Monday, September 29 - Complete a preparation activity that Mr Huff will send once you have registered (will count in place of one “regular” social studies assignment upon submission and participation in the live lesson)
- 1:00 pm - 2:00 pm Tuesday, September 30 - Participate in the group online live lesson, Joining the Peace Corps (counts in place of another “regular” social studies assignment)
- Optional - Do an individual follow-up activity (counts in place of a third regular assignment for those who choose to do this). Mr Huff will provide the follow-up activity after the online meeting.

Questions? Contact Mr. Huff at ethanh@monte.k12.co.us