

Autism and Hearing Loss Quiz

Autism Spectrum Disorders and Deafness

Overview: Three main challenges overlap for students with an Autism Spectrum Disorder and students with hearing loss – communication, behavior, and socialization. Explore how these commonalities compound to have a profound impact on student life and education. Conclude the module with ways to address and support the unique needs of these students.

Quiz

Here is the Powerpoint

Here is the Video

1. What are the disorders covered under the DSM-IV Classification of Pervasive Developmental Disorder? Include a brief definition of each one.
2. What is the criterion that must be met to give a diagnosis of autism?
3. State and briefly summarize the three areas of Autistic Disorder.
4. What are some common evaluation tools used to determine Autism?

5. Describe the five areas of challenge of PDD and suggested supports in each area.
6. Compare and contrast the challenges faced by children with Autism/PDD and children with a hearing loss.
7. Briefly compare and contrast the language development of children with Autism/PDD and children with a hearing loss.
8. Discuss the prevalence of Autism, children with a hearing loss, and the combination diagnosis.
9. 3 reasons were given as to why early diagnosis is critical. Explain each in detail. Include how the age of diagnosis is relevant and the implications of late identification.
10. Pick 3 practices or supports that are known to benefit children with Autism and a hearing loss. Explain what they are, how they could be used, and why that strategy would be a good match for a child with Autism and hearing loss.