Introduction [12 pt. Arial Bold] The first section must be “Introduction” ; [Typed in Bold, List-style with ABCs Alphabets]

[12 pt. Book Antiqua] Please explore in more words the background of your manuscript and your current research position among other research on related themes (research and study on education management, curriculum, education assessment, education policy, education technology, learning and teaching, education human resource and entrepreneurship education). You should discuss here your research’s relationship with other researches; literature review, especially on most relevant, newly academic works published in high reputation journals. This will reveal the state of the art, its originality, APA style with a single space. Example: (Nurdin, 2019), (Nurmayuli & Oktarina, 2023), (Lailatussaadah et al., 2023).

Please try to answer at least two questions: (1) why you believe that your research question is such an important to answer; and (2) how other scholars have or have not answered, or how you think your answer will give a contribution to the existing scholarship on the subject.

A detailed description of your methods in doing the research is not necessary to write down in this section, but if you think you have to do so, you may mention it slightly in one or two sentences. Then, for closing this introduction section, you should explore the flows of your discussion and the expected final results.

Results Literature Review [12 pt. Book Antiqua Bold]

[12 pt. Book Antiqua] Include the current knowledge including substantive findings, as well as theoretical and methodological contributions to your topic. A literature review surveys books, scholarly articles, and any other sources relevant to a particular issue, area of research, or theory, and by so doing, provides a description, summary, and critical evaluation of these works in relation to the research problem being investigated.

Methods [12 pt. Book Antiqua Bold]

[12 pt. Book Antiqua] Provide sufficient detail to allow your work to be reproduced. Methods already published should be indicated by a reference: only relevant modifications should be described.

Results [12 pt. Book Antiqua Bold]

[12 pt. Book Antiqua] Present the results of your work. Use graphs and tables

if appropriate, but also summarize your main findings in the text. Do NOT discuss the results or speculate as to why something happened; that goes in the Discussion.

Discussion [12 pt. Book Antiqua Bold]

[12 pt. Book Antiqua] In this section you may discuss every aspect of the issue one by one. It is necessary to build argument and to provide original data discussed and compared to research and works of other scholars. The way to discuss an issue here is by combining the data and the discussion. So, it is not recommended to separate merely data description from the analysis on it.

For Tables, the title size is 12 and the content size is 10. Number the tables subsequently throughout your article and the title is written above the table (see Table 1 for example).

Table 1. Table captions should be placed above the table

Table	Header	Header 2	Header 3
Item 1	Aaa	Bbb	Ccc
Item 2	Ddd	Eee	Fff

For Figures, the title size is 12 and the content size (if any) is 10. Number the figures subsequently throughout your article and the title is written below the figure (see Figure 1 for example).

Conclusion [12 pt Book Antiqua Bold]

[12 pt. Book Antiqua] Please provide here your remarks as closing statement. It could be a final conclusion from your discussion and analysis and your recommendations for further research project. In this section as well you may give your acknowledgment for people and parties whose supports make your research possible.
