The Trellis Micro-grant project, supported by The Department of Canadian Heritage's Official Languages Support Programs, seeks to highlight English-language Arts and Artists to make them visible to a broader community, and build bridges between Québec's English-speaking minority and Francophone majority.

Projects supported will be those that seek to strengthen the English-language community sense of belonging in Quebec, through arts and culture. Projects must seek to increase intra- and inter-community appreciation and provide more opportunities for cooperation. The goal of the funding is the promotion of the English-speaking artistic communities' contributions to Québec's development and/or to create more opportunities to bring the English- and French-speaking communities closer together.

Successful applicants will also be expected to provide content for project promotion through ELAN's social media and newsletters (pictures, short updates on activities etc.), and provide a short final report of activities within 3 months of project closure.
