

My mission is to live in integrity and alignment with the principles I hold dear; to create a meaningful and lasting impact as a servant leader; to make a difference in the lives of others by living my gifts and helping awaken others to their potential.

My guiding principles, beliefs and tenets:

- Humankind is fundamentally good.
- Every human being has a unique purpose and genius.
- Every human being is worthy of kindness and respect.
- We are all one and different expressions of the same whole.
- We live in an abundant universe, and there are always resources available to me to fulfill my mission.
- There is always a way for everyone to win, and I only participate in what's mutually beneficial.
- I always seek to unify rather than divide.

To fulfill this mission:

I am charitable: I freely give my love, time, talents, and resources to leave the world better than I found it.

I inspire: I lead by example that we are all children of a loving God, endowed with gifts and genius and limitless possibility, and that every obstacle contains an equal seed of opportunity.

I am transparent: I share my experiences honestly, objectively, and freely to the extent that is appropriate.

I am impactful: What I do makes a difference in the lives of others.

I am consistent: I commit to doing the necessary actions – day in and day out – that compound and move the needle in fulfilling my purpose.

I am grounded: I am humble and remind myself daily that I am not after personal glory – that fulfillment and potential is realized through serving others. Ripples create tsunamis, and I am content to be no more than a ripple.

I am positive: I always see the blessing and upside in everything.

I take care of myself: I invest in myself and protect my precious energy by caring for myself spiritually, emotionally, mentally and physically.

I am discerning: When I'm unsure of what to do, I listen to my intuition and whether I feel resonance or dissonance. I know all the answers are inside me and that I have access to Infinite Intelligence.

These roles take priority in achieving my mission:

Wife: My husband is the most important person and relationship in my life. We are stronger together. Together we create the fruits of harmony, industry, charity and stewardship.

Mother: I help my daughter become a woman of character and the most authentic version of herself. I create a safe and loving environment for her to explore, experience joy, and to confidently step into her gifts and genius.

Daughter/Sister: I am a supportive, loving and reliable member of my family.

Friend: I am reliable, accepting, and a sounding board.

Neighbor and Community Member: I contribute to my community by being a good neighbor and by giving back in meaningful ways – whether that's by providing a Free Little Library, a beautiful yard, or meals and help to those in need.

Business Owner: I am responsible and knowledgeable about my business affairs and create products and services that positively impact the world.

Leader and Coach: I provide value to all those I reach and help others improve their lives and realize their potential. I lead by example by leading myself first.

Steward: I make the most of the resources available to me and take actions to grow them for the benefit of others.

Scholar: I learn something new, important and interesting every day.
