</>"Congratulations! If you are reading this, then your local JoyCo-brand vending machine has been selected for an early trial of our new line of 'Amazona' products!"

You see another button on the machine labeled Amazona Iced Tea. A small holo-projection of a muscular woman appears over the button, and starts to speak. </>"Are you tired of being little? Do you want to unleash the queen of the jungle inside you? Then have an Amazona! Our unique cocktails of mutagens will turn you into the woman you've always dreamt of!" It sounds like some kind of transformative. It's pretty expensive though, 3000 credits, sheesh!

[Amazona]

Amazona

You press the button on the machine and a small holoscreen comes out. It seems like you have some options.

[AmalT.Clas] A button labeled Amazona Classic with a picture of a large, muscular woman on it.

[AmalT.Lite] A button labeled Amazona Lite with a picture of a tall, slender track star on it.

Consumption and Transformation Text

Classic

//Initial

You pop open the pull-tab with a satisfying click, letting out an aroma of {silly:... pussy juice and fruit? Well, what were you expecting from a name like that?/sweet grapefruit.} You take a swig of the drink and the flavor hits you like a freighter. {silly: The combination works almost too well, {pc has fruit girlcum: as you'd hope, it's just as, if not more sweet than your own juices./ it's like you're eating out some sort of plant woman, and you can't get enough!}/It tastes like the sweetest, freshest, most succulent grapefruit you've ever had!} By the time you get over the taste, the can is empty. A few seconds of nothing passes, making you think that it might have been a dud. Just when you start considering filing a complaint, a delightful surge of power goes through your body. You crush the can in your hand and toss it aside as you feel your body change.

//Repeat

Bottoms up! You pop open the can and start chugging the contents. You know by this point there's no way you'd stop yourself from downing the whole thing anyway. You crush the can and toss it aside, eagerly awaiting your next dose of growth.

Lite

//Initial

You pop open the pull-tab with a satisfying click, letting out an aroma of sweet lime. You take a swig of the drink and the flavor hits you like a freighter. {silly: The name seemed weird to you at first, but now you realize that this stuff is so good that it should be a crime!} A thick, sweet lime flavor washes over your mouth, bathing your tastebuds in bliss. Unfortunately the can is small, and you finish it quickly. You crush the can and toss it aside in disappointment, only to be reminded of your real reason for paying 3000 credits for a can of iced tea a short while later, when delightful shudders surge through your body, signaling the start of the changes.

//Repeat

For how much you paid for this, you really wish they gave you more. You realize that the drink itself isn't really the point, but still. You chug down the can in a second, savoring the brief blast of flavor before discarding it as the changes start.

Plus

//initial:

You twist off the cap to little excitement. A cursory sniff yields only a faint hint of watermelon. You take a small sip and reel back from the shock. Sweet shit this stuff is strong! The shock of it makes you reflexively want to spit it out, but it's so good that you can't pry your lips from the bottle. You feel like a {man/woman} possessed, chugging down the concoction with barely a thought as to why. When the bottle finally runs dry it feels like your sense of time is off by a few seconds, like you passed out briefly. You hazily collect your bearings, until a sudden tightness spreads across your body, signaling that the drink is starting to take effect.

//repeat:

You twist off the cap, holding yourself back from just chugging the whole thing right there and then. You sit down, making sure to brace yourself for what's about to come, and take a sip. As before, your senses return a few seconds later, leaving you hazed and confused. You stare down at the empty bottle for a second, wondering if drinking all of this... whatever it is, is bad for your health. Before you can finish that though, a wave of tightness washes over your body, signaling the start of the changes.

Futazona

A small dial sits on the lid of the thermos, currently set to OFF. It has three other options; Classic, Lite, and Plus, and instructions saying to pick an option and press down on the dial before opening.

Which option do you choose?

[Classic] [Lite] [Plus] [Nevermind] //Goes back to Inventory

Nevermind

You decide not to open the thermos right now, and stow it away.

Any option other than Nevermind:

You set it to your desired option and press down. A small clicking noise comes from the cap, and a few seconds later it beeps, signaling that it's ready to be opened. You twist the cap open and are greeted with the calming scent of hazelnuts. You take a deep sniff of the contents, taking in the nutty aroma and catching a bit of sweetness in there too; must be the honey. You take a sip, the flavor seemingly soaking into every one of your tastebuds. {taken one of the other Amazonas: Unlike the other flavor{s} you tried, there's no strong compulsion forcing you to keep drinking. Instead you just calmly sit and drink, all of your problems fading away into the sweet, nutty concoction./ You sit back and just drink, letting the sweet, nutty concoction sweep away all of your troubles.} Your whole body feels warm, despite the coldness of the drink. A tingling sensation breaks out all over you as the transformatives once held within go to work on your body.

Transformations

//Non Futazona items trigger up to 4 at a time, Futazona triggers up to 5, three from the generic pool, and 2 from its own. Futazona will always trigger 2 TFs from its own pool.

Generic

Vagina growth

//Counted separately from the other triggers, always triggers if the pc doesn't have a vagina.

//Orgasm

You feel a sudden pressure building at your crotch. You dip a hand down to the afflicted area, massaging it to try and ease the tension. It's much warmer than usual, and strangely damp. You think about going to a hospital when the pressure suddenly spikes. Something explodes out of the area you were rubbing, and you find yourself cumming uncontrollably on the spot. Your hand continues its work, but instead of massaging bare skin, your fingers are now knuckle deep in your brand new vagina!

You yank your fingers out, your new orifice still tingling in newborn desire. You make a mental promise to give it a good filling, as you go back to what you were doing.

Breast growth

//Lite grows by 1-3 rankings, Classic by 2-4, Plus by 3-5

//Lust gain

A delicious heat washes over your [pc.chest], turning your [pc.nipples] diamond hard. You reach {non-nude: into your [pc.upperGarment],/for your chest,} grabbing and kneading at your flesh in order to enhance the sensations. There's a strange pressure pushing back at your hands, and when you look down, you see your tit-flesh expanding, pushing back against you. You revel in the sensations of your growing breasts as you continue to grope yourself, stopping just shy of giving yourself a boobgasm. You pry your hands off and allow yourself to just sit and admire how your newly enhanced bosom {non-nude: stretches your [pc.upperGarments]/hangs from your bare form.}

Tallness increase

//Lite grows by 2-3, Classic by 3-4, Plus by 4-5

A sudden wave of nausea overtakes you, making you feel very dizzy. You balance yourself against a nearby wall, staring downward as you wait for the sickening feeling to pass. You're so lightheaded that it seems like the ground is getting further away from you; was that a bad batch, or are you having some kind of allergic reaction? The sickness fades after a few seconds, but the feeling of being higher up does not. Confused, you stand back up straight and find that you have actually grown a few inches taller!

Tone increase

//Lite grows by 3-5, Classic by 4-6, Plus by 5-7

//Small lust gain

Your muscles are filled with a sense of power; each move is almost sensual in how good it feels. You throw out a few jabs and kicks, just to feel your muscles work and stretch. A sublime tightness takes hold of you, molding and smoothing away any fat or imperfections, slowly giving you the adonis-like figure promised on the label. The feeling stops, leaving you satisfied and noticeably more toned. {tone 50 or more: Damn, looking ripped!}

Getting down with the thickness (Thickness increase)

//Lite grows by 1-2, Classic by 2-3, Plus by 4-5

//Lust gain

Your body feels delightfully plush all of a sudden. You close your eyes and take a minute just to bask in the feeling, only snapping out of your relaxed stupor when you feel a weight settle on yourself. You open your eyes and see that your body has widened {Lite or Classic: slightly/Plus: considerably}. The plush feeling rises to a fever pitch as you explore your newly broadened frame, but where ever your hands roam the feeling soon dissipates. You stop groping yourself before you go too far, still feeling small tingles of arousal as your body comes down off of it's transformative high. {thickness 50 or over: Damn, getting pretty {silly: thicc/: built}}

Hip expansion

//Lite grows by 1, Classic by 2, Plus by 3

Your legs feel very heavy all of a sudden; you look down to see your hips widening, pushing your stance wider to make room. The growth stops almost as soon as it began. Huh, a little underwhelming, but at least you've got some more curves.

Ass expansion

//Lite grows by 1, Classic by 2, Plus by 3

//Small lust gain

A heaviness sets over your [pc.ass], and you know exactly what that means. You reach around and grab your heiny, just in time to feel it fill out. It grows in your hands, {clothed:stretching out your [pc.lowerGarments] as it fills out./:hanging heavier with each passing second.} The growth stops after a few seconds, leaving you holding ordinary, non-growing assflesh. You give your newly embiggened cheeks a light slap as you get on your way.

Wetness increase

//Increases by 1

//All vagina-based TFs have a lower priority compared to the others.

You feel an unnatural dampness in your [pc.pussy]; you {exhibitionism <33:find a quiet corner and} reach down to see what happened. Indeed, you feel an abnormal amount of [pc.girlCum] leaking out of you. Try as you might, you cannot seem to stem the tide. Looks like things are going to be a bit more moist from now on. {wetness 4 or above:You should really think about getting waterproof panties.}

Capacity increase

//Increases by 10

A strange tingling wells up in your [pc.pussy], stopping almost as soon as it started. You make sure {exhibitionism <33: someone/ no one} is looking, and dip a finger into your honeypot. You find nothing out of the ordinary, until you start to press against your inner-walls. They stretch out a good bit further than you've ever felt them; they're definitely more pliant now.

Fertility

//Increases by 1

//Does not trigger if pc is sterile

You feel a small rumbling deep in your gut; reaching a hand down to your stomach reveals nothing, it seems to be coming from further down. Moving your hand further South, you eventually reach the area around your womb, at which point the rumbling turns into a full-body shudder before dissipating. A strange feeling washes over your womb, some sense of fullness or potency that wasn't there before; it feels like your reproductive organs are working just a bit harder now.

Energy recovery

//Recovers 50 energy

//Small lust gain

//Not counted as a transformation

A surge of energy rushes through your body, revitalizing every strand of muscle. Damn, you feel like you could run a marathon, and still have the energy to drain some hung stud dry!

Shrinking (for Lite/Classic)

Breast shrinking

//Decreases by 2-4 for Lite

You feel a stirring in your bosom. You reach to check what's wrong and are surprised when your [pc.breasts] seem to retreat from your hands, growing smaller by the second. When it's done, you're left with a much less impressive bust; on the plus side it's much easier to run with all of that weight off your chest.

Hip shrinking

//Decreases by 1-2 for Lite

Your stride feels narrower than it was just a few seconds ago. Looking down, your [pc.hips] seem to have thinned quite considerably.

Ass shrinkage

//Decreases by 1-2 for Lite

Your [pc.ass] is tingling; a few soft pats reveal that, indeed, there's less cushion back there for the pushin'.

Gettin' rid of the thickness (thickness decrease)

//Decreases by 1-3 for Classic, 3-5 for Lite

You feel a sudden sense of lightness, like you could break out into a sprint and be carried along by an afternoon breeze. Looking yourself over, you see your whole frame shrinking, toning down into the kind of lean body that most athletes would have wet dreams about.

Futazona

Penis and ball growth

//Will always trigger if the pc has a vagina and no dick

//Does not count against the TF count

//Grows a penis that is appropriate for your current race (dog for Ausar, cat for Kaithrit, etc)

//Lite gives a thickness ratio of 0.9, Classic gives 1, Plus gives 1.1

You suddenly double over, racked with a dull pain that seems to be creeping all over your body. You fight through it to regain your balance, only to be knocked flat on your ass when it suddenly rushes down to your crotch. {clothed: You tear off your [pc.lowerGarments] frantically, the confinement only exacerbating the pain./ You thank the stars that you're wearing nothing down there that could potentially obscure what's happening.} The pain rises to a peak before suddenly shifting. You can't place it at first, your crotch feels like a white hot ball of over-stimulated nerves; almost unsure of what it should be experiencing. Eventually the sensation settles, and only one word comes to your mind: pleasure. White hot pleasure that seizes every neuron in your brain and demands that they all pay attention.

You knead at the afflicted area. It feels better than masturbating ever has, and the feeling only seems to be getting stronger. As the sensation progresses you notice that you're touching more flesh than usual; indeed the area appears to be swelling. You panic, wondering what this strange growth is, but are unable to pry your hands away. You're a passenger in your own body as the swelling gets worse and worse, until it stops.

As it stops it also goes numb, allowing you to pull your body back from the edge of mindless pleasure. You sit and observe the growth, beet red and undulating heavily. You start to think about rushing to a hospital, when blinding pleasure overtakes you once again. The growth bursts forward with amazing speed, quickly forming into a thinner, more phallic shape. Pressure builds as it takes on its final metamorphosis, defining into the recognizable shape of a 6 inch [pc.cock]. You stroke your newborn shaft, desperately seeking release, but something's missing. That 'something' quickly becomes apparent as another bulge of flesh settles under it, quickly forming into a defined sack with two bloated, but average sized testes.

You cum and cum, your [pc.pussy] eagerly joining its newborn brother in celebration. You paint yourself white, your new cock erupting like a sprinkler, until your balls feel delightfully drained. You groan and rise to your feet, too blissfully sated to care about the messy state you're in; you can shower later. {clothed:You find your discarded clothing and put it back on, with no shortage of issues thanks to your new addition.}

//Add flag: Cum Soaked

Penis growth

//Increases by 2 inches each dose

//Lust gain

You feel a tightness in your [pc.cocks], like {it's/they are} an overly plump {pair of} sausage{s} ready to pop out of {its/their} skin. {clothed:You pull off your [pc.lowerGarments] and your iron rod{s} pop out with such force that {it/they} smack{s} you in the gut./isNude: Strangely, it doesn't seem like you're fully erect yet; your dong{s} {is/are} still quite soft and floppy. A cursory touch quickly changes that, a simple brush along a vein causes a surge of blood to rush into {it/them}, shooting {it/them} to full erectness so fast that {it/they} smack{s} you right in the gut.}

You reel back from the impact, quickly grabbing hold of your overly energetic [pc.cocks]. It already feels like there's a lot more cockmeat there for you to grab, and there's still more to come. By the time it stops you've got about two more inches to your name.

Hung bonus

//Triggers when you max out dick size for the version that you used (you reach 10 inches using Lite, etc)

//Increases by 2

//Orgasm

You start to put your [pc.cocks] away, but it is a little hard with how... well, how hard {it is/they are}. Suddenly a new wave of tightness overtakes {it/them}, sending you tumbling to the ground as the sensation catches you off-guard. Your hand{s} move{s} on {its/their} own, caught up in the overwhelming sensation of growth. Your shaft{s} grow with renewed vigor, spreading your fingers apart as {it/they} sprout{s} out of you, getting fatter and longer by the second. You cum just as {it/they} finish{es}, painting yourself [pc.cumColor] with the copious release.

You get up with a groan, taking stock of what just happened. Your [pc.cocks] {is/are} still iron hard, and seem{s} to have grown another two inches. {clothed: You shove them back into your [pc.underGarments], having more important things to do than jerk off all day, as nice as that would be./You sigh at your erect state; a lack of pants is going to make getting around a bit awkward for the next few minutes.}

//Add flag: Cum Soaked

Ball growth

//Increases by 2

//lust gain

There's a pleasant throbbing in your sack, like a constant, weak orgasm. You reach down and knead at them {clothed: through your [pc.lowerGarments]}, enhancing the pleasant sensations, until they start pulsing rapidly. The sensation only make you squeeze harder, letting you feel how they seem to grow slightly with each pulse. Your [pc.cocks] {is/are} rock hard, spraying streams of pre-cum in time with the pulsations. By the time the growth stops, your [pc.balls] have become considerably larger, and your crotch is covered in a thick layer of pre.

Bulgy bonus

//Triggers the same way as the Hung bonus

//Increases by 3

//Orgasm

//Leaves the pc blueballed

Just when you think it's over your [pc.balls] start to shudder once again, growing with frightening speed. You cum on the spot from the sensation, firing off massive gouts of [pc.cum]; but no amount of release seems to drain your constantly swelling testes as they gorge themselves on mutagen. As the growth stops, so too does your orgasm, and with plenty of [pc.cumNoun] left in your newly enhanced sack. You groan and reach down to relieve yourself, but decency kicks you in the teeth and tells you that you've made enough of a mess already. You'll just have to do it after you get cleaned up, or maybe while you're cleaning up?

//Add flag: Cum Soaked

Refractory rate

//Increases by 5

//Low trigger chance

You feel something in your [pc.balls], a sort of increased potency. You can't be sure, but something is giving you the feeling that your sperm factories just ramped up production.

Overdosing

//Overdoses trigger at 6 to 10 uses within a 24 hour period.

//Using a Futazona or Amazona during the overdosing period will reset the countdown.

//Overdose growth ignores the size cap of the item you used.

//Overdosing has it's own transformations, and won't trigger any of the non-overdosing effects
//Only one Overdosing effect, and potentially a perk trigger, can happen per use

Breast growth

//increases by 6-8
//high lust gain
//no size cap

Your [pc.breasts] feel warm, a bit too warm. Warm quickly turns to hot, and then way too hot. {clothed: You tear off your [pc.upperGarments], desperate to cool your tits./ Even without anything covering them, your chest is still sweltering.} You fan at your burning melons, with your hands, desperate to do anything to cool them off. The heat seems to expand, outgrowing your flesh; at least that's what it seems like.

You press your hands to your breasts, and you feel the raw heat emanating off of them, but also something else, some kind of pressure. It feels... weird, not bad though. You start to knead your flesh, feeling the heat begin to recede as you do. The pressure starts building as the heat goes away, the strange feeling quickly shifting into something more pleasurable. You stand and {exhibitionism <33: shamefully/ unashamedly} grope your [pc.breasts], pinching at your [pc.nipples] just to enhance the sensation.

You can feel the pressure building, hurdling you toward what's going to be an immense boobgasm. {isLactating: [pc.milk] beads at the tips of your [pc.nipples], cascading into sloppy streams that soak your front.} You feel the pressure peak, and close your eyes in anticipation of release. Here it comes! Here it-it-it's not stopping! The pressure builds even more, pushing out against the inside of your skin. Your tits feel like balloons as they start to expand, swallowing up your hands as they try to hold back the tide. They just keep going! {PC has used Gush: Even Gush wasn't this bad!} When they stop, it's a struggle to even keep your balance with how much just got added onto your chest.

{clothed: Somehow your [pc.upperGarments] just barely manage to fit back on you, stretching obscenely over your newly enhanced assets.}

Hips and Ass growth

//increases by 4-6 for each
//caps at 30 for each

You suddenly trip over yourself, finding your sense of balance failing you. You barely manage to stay on your feet, but your balance is still so off that you think it's better idea to sit down. You fumble your way to a sitting position, wondering what's happening with your legs. Your answer comes quickly as you see your [pc.hips] and [pc.thighs] bloating out at a rapid pace.

Just after you notice that, something else grabs your attention; namely, that you seem to be getting taller. Looking down confirms that this isn't the case, and instead it's your [pc.ass] growing in tandem with your legs that's pushing you upward. All you can do is sit there as pound after pound of plush posterior packs profusely on your pelvis.

When the growth stops, you're a few inches higher than when you first sat down, and your thighs look like they've gained the mass of two large hams. Sitting up is a challenge with your newly added weight, but you eventually manage. It's a little more challenging to walk with so much extra weight, but a quick feel of your [pc.ass] reassures you that it just might be worth it.

Penis growth

//Increases by 4-6, 6-8 with Hung

//increases thickness ratio by 0.1

//Orgasm

//Futazona only

//Requires a penis

Your [pc.ocks] shoot to full hardness, {clothed: nearly tearing your [pc.underGarments] off of you./ flying upward with enough force to give anyone unlucky enough to be in front of you a good smack.} You reel back, lightheaded at your sudden tumescence. {clothed: Your [pc.undergarments] feeling almost painfully tight. {exhibitionism <33: You find a nice, private place to strip them off./ You tear them off, not caring who sees.} You grasp your {meat/shafts}, feeling {it/them} jump in your hand{s}. {It's/They're} harder than you've ever felt {it/them}, the veins seeming to be working overtime to supply so much blood.

You start to jerk yourself off, desperate to relieve the aching, throbbing hardness. {It/They} feel{s} so much more sensitive than usual, every stroke sending a shuddering wave of bliss up your spine, causing you to throw your head back. You stroke faster and faster, each stroke seeming to send more and more blood into [pc.eachCock]. Eventually you notice that your strokes are lasting longer than they should; you look down and realize that there's at least another inch of dick-flesh down there!

You try to get your body to stop, but it's not listening to you anymore. Your hands continue to stroke, each movement seeming to drag another few centimeters of cock out of your groin. The continued masturbation, combined with the sight of your expanding [pc.ocks] sets you off. Your [pc.balls] tighten up as they send a fresh volley of [pc.cum] up your urethra{s}. Your hand{s} shoot up to the end{s} of your shaft{s}, yanking another inch out with them. You unload onto the ground in front of you, making a huge [pc.cumColor] mess.

Panting, you take inspection of the aftermath. You're a lot longer than you used to be, and thicker than you think you should be. Getting to know some big women might be a good idea, especially if you're going to keep drinking this stuff.

Ball growth

//Increases by 8-12, 12-16 with bulgy

//Orgasm

//Add flag: Cum Soaked

//Futazona only

//Requires balls and a penis

Your [pc.balls] feel really sore all of a sudden, like you haven't cum in months. {exhibitionism <33: You find a secluded corner to deal with your dilemma./ You make sure at least one person is looking before tending to it.} {Clothed: You strip off your [pc.underGarments] to get at them.} You start to massage your sack, trying to relieve the soreness. Void, they feel so dense! Has it really been that long since you came?

You manage to massage out the soreness, but the dense feeling remains, in fact it seems to be getting worse. Unthinkingly, you give your balls a mild squeeze, which seems to set off something. The denseness turns to extreme heaviness, like your [pc.balls] are suddenly made of lead! You panic, thinking something must have gone horribly wrong, when suddenly a wave of pleasure knocks you off your feet.

You land [pc.ass] first, the pressure in your crotch too much for you to get up. Your [pc.cockBiggest] points at you accusingly. it's rock hard, and leaking a thick drop of pre. You grab and start stroking for dear life, desperate to relieve to pounding fullness in your sack. You go off very quickly, hosing yourself [pc.cumColor]. But neither the heaviness or your orgasm fade. Your dick is a firehose, spraying you down with the endless liquid from your hydrant-like balls. You manage to fumble your tool to aim away from you. You wipe the [pc.cum] from your face, finally able to see what's happening, only to jump in shock as you see your [pc.balls] swelling.

They're packing on size in tune with your orgasm; if you didn't know any better, you'd say they were making [pc.cumNoun] faster than their expanding mass could contain it! You have no choice but to ride out the rest of your orgasm, steeping yourself in a small lake of your own ejaculate. When you finally come down, it's a struggle to even get back up. Even after you do manage to get to your feet, your newly enhanced package makes it difficult to walk. You'd better get out of here before someone makes you clean this up, you're going to have enough trouble just washing yourself down.
