

BILL NYE
503-978-5600 | billnye@science.guy.com

PROFILE

Medical laboratory technician with 4 years of experience as phlebotomist and specimen processor

LABORATORY WORK EXPERIENCE

Phlebotomist/Specimen Processor, Providence Portland Medical Center mo/year - mo/year
In-patient phlebotomy - serving a variety of patients periodically using trauma informed lens

- Manage time to, label, and process laboratory specimens, provide phone support services, while multi-tasking with various interruptions
- Organize work according to testing priority
- Cerner Millennium and Epic computer systems, triage/STAT response experience
- Familiar with following laboratory automated analyzers: Vitek, BacT/Alert, Vidas 3, Sysmex XN-3000, Stago Compact coag analyzer

EDUCATION

AAS, Medical Laboratory Technician (expected) mo/year
Portland Community College, Portland, OR
ASCP pending mo/year

Certificate, Phlebotomy, Clark College, Vancouver, WA mo/year

CLINICAL SITE EXPERIENCE

Legacy Emanuel Hospital: Microbiology (hours)

Legacy Salmon Creek Hospital: Hematology, Coagulation, Urinalysis, Chemistry (hours)

Providence Portland Medical Center: Blood bank (hours)

EMPLOYMENT SUMMARY

Various Customer Service Positions mo/year - mo/year (total)

- Work well under pressure managing priorities and noticing team member work styles
- Plan ahead and organize work space for personal, coworker and customer safety
- Handle difficult situations independently using non-judgmental attitude
- Follow directions easily to perform independently while handling frequent interruptions
- Communicate well with others by carefully listening and thinking before responding