Global Book Bag

Title: Rain School Author: James Rumford

Global Competence: Capitalize on available resources and partnerships

Summary:

It is the first day of school in Chad, Africa. Children are filling the road.

"Will they give us a notebook?" Thomas asks.

"Will they give us a pencil?"

"Will I learn to read?"

But when he and the other children arrive at the schoolyard, they find no classroom, no desks. Just a teacher. "We will build our school," she says. "This is our first lesson."

Virtual Library Shelf

https://bit.ly/3qIXAUV

Bag Contents:

- Notebook
- Pencil
- Note cards

Directions:

- With a grown up in your home, read the book or watch the read aloud.
- Open the notebook to the next blank page.
- Write your name and the date on the top.

It is your turn to build a school! Use the note cards in the bag, or other materials at your home, to build a model of a classroom. In the notebook, draw and label your model.

Think about building a school in our community. What materials would you use? Who would you ask to partner with you?

Record your ideas	in the notebook.
I would use	•
I would ask	to help me because

Keep Learning! (optional)

1. Check out these images of students learning in schools around the world!

California Global Education Project (University of San Diego) CalGlobalEd.org

https://bit.ly/2TW6d5y

- 2. Write a book review recommending the book to another reader.
- 3. Discuss what it means to capitalize on available resources and partnerships.

