THE FROG PRINCE

Verse 1
There once was frog in an old farm pond,
Where a young girl stood with a magic wand.
In hopes of a prince the maid made a wish,
And the chosen (♥) she gave a kiss.

Verse 2
The waters—stirred and the frog winked his eye,
As the maiden looked for her handsome guy.
Alas, the frog, still a frog, jumped high,
He dove in the water and croaked goodbye.

Verse 3
Dreams are special, but don't be a fool.
Frogs aren't princes, they live in a pool.
Listen and learn this lesson's twist.
A frog once blessed 'just a frog been kissed!
