

THE FROG PRINCE

Verse 1

There once was frog in an old farm pond,
 Where a young girl stood with a magic wand.
 In hopes of a prince the maid made a wish,
 And the chosen (♥) she gave a kiss.

Verse 2

The waters—stirred and the frog winked his eye,
 As the maiden looked for her handsome guy.
 Alas, the frog, still a frog, jumped high,
 He dove in the water and croaked goodbye.

Verse 3

Dreams are special, but don't be a fool.
 Frogs aren't princes, they live in a pool.
 Listen and learn this lesson's twist.
 A frog once blessed 'just a frog been kissed!
