

Peloponnesian War Webquest: Athens vs Sparta

Using your notes/background knowledge, list the characteristics of both Athens and Sparta. If you need some help, we have also linked videos that explain the two greek city states.

Sparta This is SPARTA!	Athens A Day in Athens
1. 2. 3. 4. 5.	1. 2. 3. 4. 5.

Use the links provided below to answer the following questions about the Peloponnesian War.

1. Who were the primary players in the conflict? How did each league form?

Peloponnesian League	Delian League
• Led by: (Intro Paragraph) • Why it formed: (Members and Responsibilities) • Partnering city-states: (Members and Responsibilities)	• Led by: (Intro Paragraph) • Why it formed: (Intro Paragraph) • Partnering city-states: (Membership & Tribute)

2. The primary conflict between the Greeks is actually considered the second Peloponnesian War (the first war was during the years 460-446 BCE). Over what years did this second clash occur? Ancient History Encyclopedia

--

3. What were the strengths of each side? Ancient History Encyclopedia

*Sparta and Allies	*Athens and Allies
Strengths:	Strengths:

4. Describe two events that played a role in determining the outcome (One event you describe should be the plague that struck Athens and its impact). Britannica - Peloponnesian War you could discuss key battles, different military operations, leaders, etc)

1. The Plague:

2.

5. How did the conflict come to an end and which side was victorious? How did a foreign power influence the outcome? Ancient History Encyclopedia (Hint: Check the “Aegospotami and Victory” section in the article)

How did the conflict come to an end:

Who won:

How did a foreign power influence the outcome (not Sparta or Athens):

6. What were the short-term and long-term consequences of the conflict? Ancient History Encyclopedia (Hint: Check the “Aftermath” section at the end of the article)

Short Term:

Long Term: