Commissions: OPEN, booking for January!

Customs: CLOSED

Art Trades: CLOSED

Requests: CLOSED

I do requests in my free time! Just put ArtUnknownR as a tag on your character on TH, or use the saved story on my Instagram account titled "Requests" to send me a character!

My prices are PWYW!

Give me your total budget, and what you want made, and we will come to a compromise :) I am willing to work with you!

The budget you give me is how much you will pay me. If it is too low, we can figure out a payment plan. If it is too high... Well, lower your budget! It should never be higher than you can give.

The compromise might mean I cannot use textured brushes, or I cannot add as much detail to lace, etc, but it will not ruin what you want to have drawn.

If you want an idea of how much I usually take, just keep in mind this is my full time job, and offer accordingly (within what you are able.)

I take payment after the sketch of time unless we have a prearranged payment plan, in which case I will require only a portion upfront.

After the concept sketch is approved, and I begin lineart, you may only request one major change. After lineart is approved, you may not ask for major line edits.

What I will draw

- Damn near anything
- I am most experienced with human women, monsters, ferals, anthros
- I am capable of drawing mecha, animatronics, armor, etc
- I can draw men, but it will take more time, and more screenshots for approval, your patience is appreciated
- Stylistically, I draw four fingers, not five. I am willing to draw five, but it will take time, and once again, a lot of patience

(NSFW rules)

- I draw both NSFW and SFW. I am experienced in both, and for NSFW I will draw humanoid adults, monsters, and animals with human or above level intelligence
- If you ask me to draw a corpse, it better be in the background, or a vampire, I swear to whatever god you pray to
- I will not draw noncon, but I will draw dubcon and/or CNC
- I will draw multiple characters, but it will cost more
- If you are curious about something not listed, please ask! I am always open to questions :)

Art Rules

- No tracing or heavily referencing my art, if you want to reference a pose or expression, just ask! I do not bite
- Do NOT use my art as a base for AI generated

images! Thank you

- No copying my designs or OCs, inspiration is fine
- Credit my art and/or designs
- Always credit my bases
- No profiting off of my art through prints, merch, etc without my permission
- If an art piece I made is more than three months old when you post it on TH, please credit my Instagram!

Adopt Rules

- Can only retrade/sell my adopts after two weeks/fourteen days of owning them, or with extra art of relative quality. (This means not a shitpost if you get annoyed with me reminding you of this rule <3) Note it can be a sketch! Just not like... a doodle for the sake of trading them.
- Certain people are on my blacklist, depending who they are, you are not allowed to trade them my adopts! Please keep that in mind when retrading :D they will be marked with NT.
- Give me a timeframe for the art and keep me updated if things come up!
- Specify what you feel comfortable drawing in your offers please (Anthro, feral, humanoid, etc.)
- Please only offer what I have listed as accepting unless otherwise stated.

- Specify clearly what you are offering! (sketch full, finished icon, etc!)

- Keep my spot in your queue clear!! I do not mind waiting if I am farther in your queue, but do not just put my piece off for newer ones.. It is extremely discouraging and devalues what you offered on.

- Please do not offer if you already owe me something! I appreciate you liking my designs, but I do not want y'all overworked. (Close friends are an exception because I can track them)

- Now that you have read this far, you get a gold star! The secret word that I give up on people actually reading is bonk

- I expect to see WIPs so I can approve each step of any art you owe me! This makes it easier when changes need to be made. I would not want y'all having extra work

- Follow any individual adopt rules listed!

Blacklist

I WANT TO BE CLEAR.

If you are on this, it does not inherently mean you did something wrong. There are many reasons I blacklist, some of which are my fault, and for my own reasons!! That being said.. There are no exceptions to my BL

- silly.seraphim

REASON: I put too much stress on them during offers.

- spindle.creations

REASON: Took advantage of a loophole in my TOS, now patched up. NT

- Niecey M. Official

REASON: Attempted to scam me out of $400, neglects animals, trauma dumps without warning, and invalidates gender and sexual identities.

Wow thank you for reading this whole thing! You should include the password hidden among my rules :D

The password changes weekly, but if you have already included it in a previous offer, you are fine lol, no need to find it again!
