Here are some important notes on a new type of verb (action word) called:

Stem-Changing Verbs

A stem-changing verb is a verb that changes its STEM.

It uses the regular endings for -AR, -ER, & -IR verbs too.

They are called BOOT verbs & don't change in the NOSOTROS or VOSOTROS forms of the verb.

When I use two verbs back-to-back, the 1st verb is _____,

but the 2nd verb stays an _____.

Example from our 1st unit:

1st verb	2nd verb
I like _____	to talk _____.

Slide 13: QUERER (e to ie) = to want

Your Responses

Translate:
I want to eat a pizza.

I want:

to eat:

a pizza:
_____.

PREFERIR (e to ie) = to prefer

Your Responses

Translate:
I don't prefer yogurt.

I don't prefer:

yogurt:

TENER (e to ie) = to have

Your Response

Translate:
I am really hungry.

I am (I have) very (a lot)

hungry (of hunger):

Word Bank to help with translating the sentences:

comer = to eat

la pizza = pizza

el yogur = yogurt

mucha hambre = a lot of hunger

Speaking Activity Directions:

- 1) Work with your partner.
- 2) One person will be "Persona A" and say the first sentence out loud.
Example: Yo quiero comer la pizza porque es buena.
I want to eat pizza because (it) is good.
- 3) The other person will be "Persona B" and respond that they agree or disagree with your description of the food or drink.

Persona A:

Yo (no) quiero comer (a food/drink) porque ((no) es/son+adjective).

(I (don't) want to eat/drink (something)(because it is/they are (not))(describing word).)

¿Estás de acuerdo?

(Do you agree?)

Persona B:

Sí, estoy de acuerdo.

(Yes, I agree.)

OR

No, no estoy de acuerdo.

(No, I don't agree.)

Yo prefiero comer (a food/drink).

(I prefer to eat/drink (something else).)
