

1.

One Man Demo

A man making his own protest against unemployment. The sign on his back reads: 'I know 3 trades, I speak 3 languages, fought 3 years, have 3 children and no work for 3 months, but I only want one job.' (Photo by General Photographic Agency/Getty Images)

2.

People/The Depression, 16th November 1930, A 'soup kitchen' in Chicago, U,S,A, opened for the hungry and homeless by gangster Al Capone during the Depression (Photo by Rolls Press/Popperfoto/Getty Images)

3.

Dust Cloud

South of Lamar, Colorado, a large dust cloud appears behind a truck traveling on highway 59, May 1936.
(Photo by PhotoQuest/Getty Images)

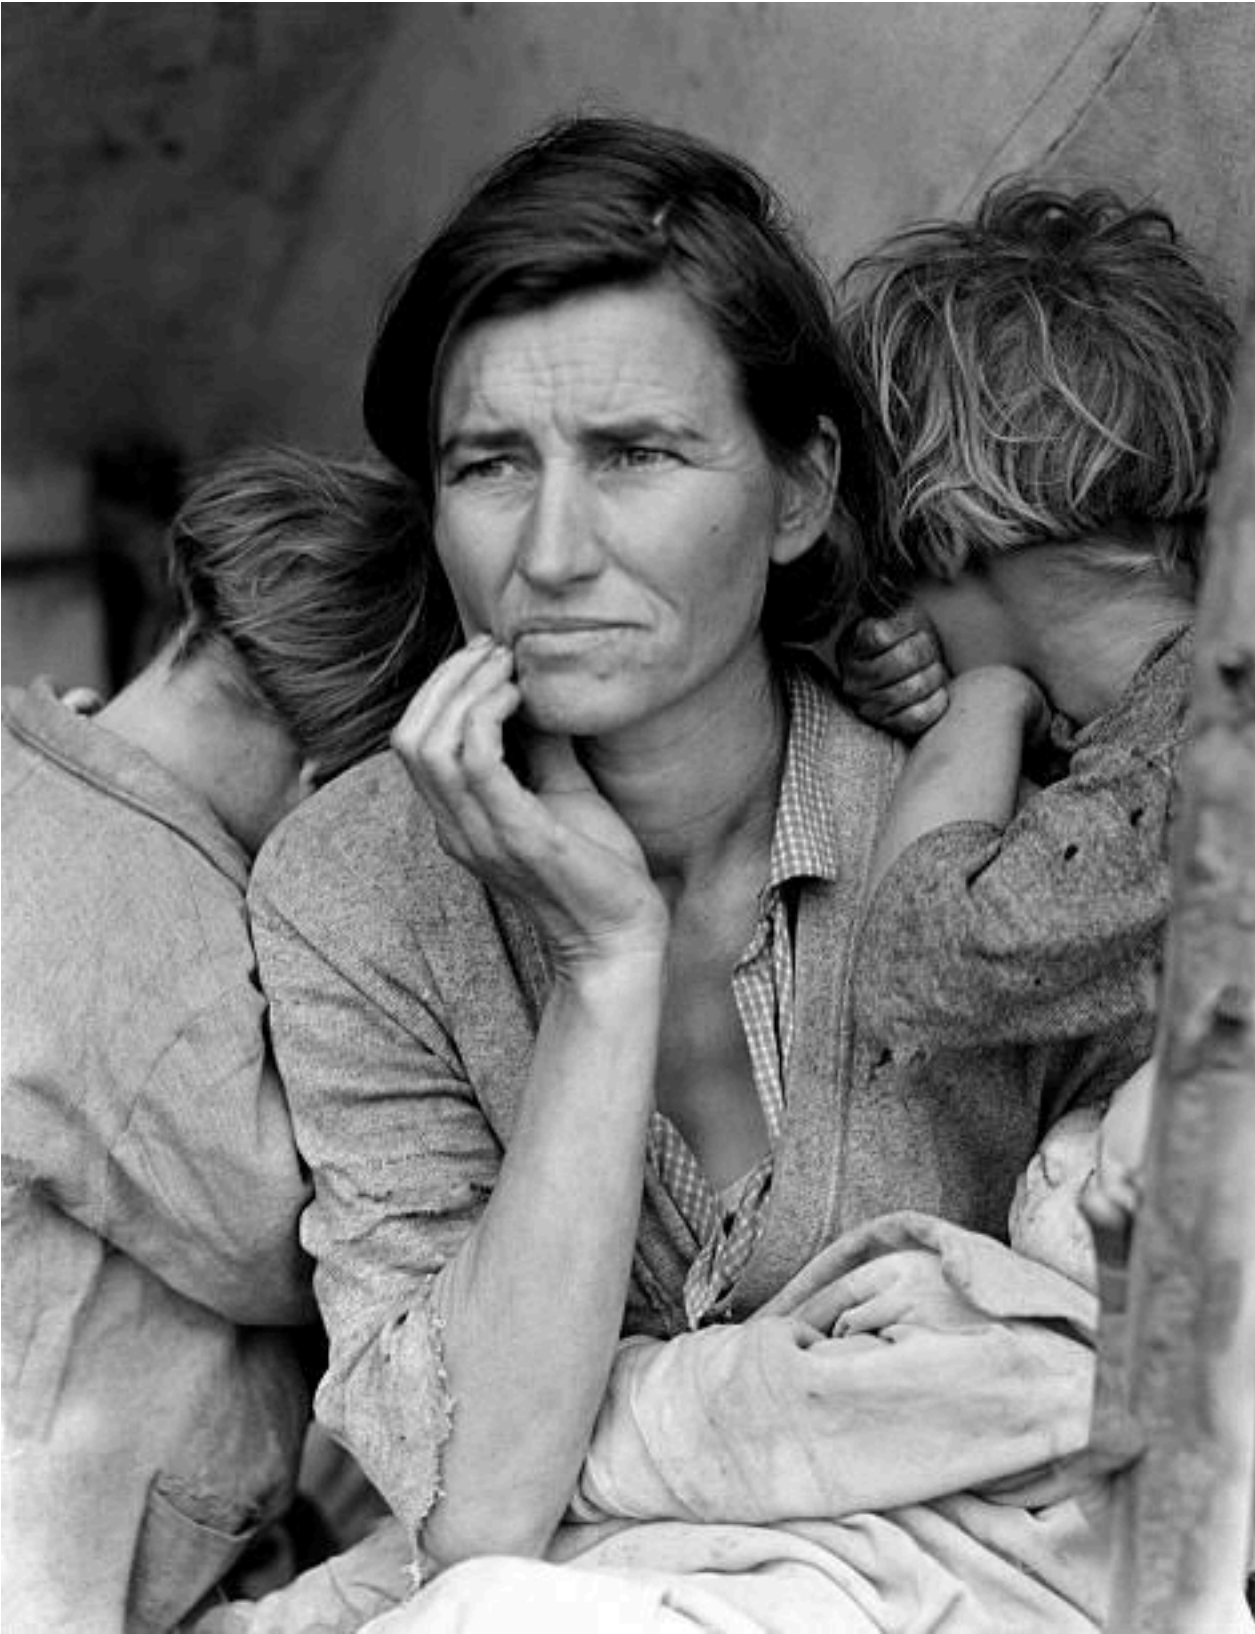

4.

Buried Machinery During Dust Bowl

View of buried machinery in a barn lot, in Dallas, South Dakota, May 1936. (Photo by Sloan/PhotoQuest/Getty Images)

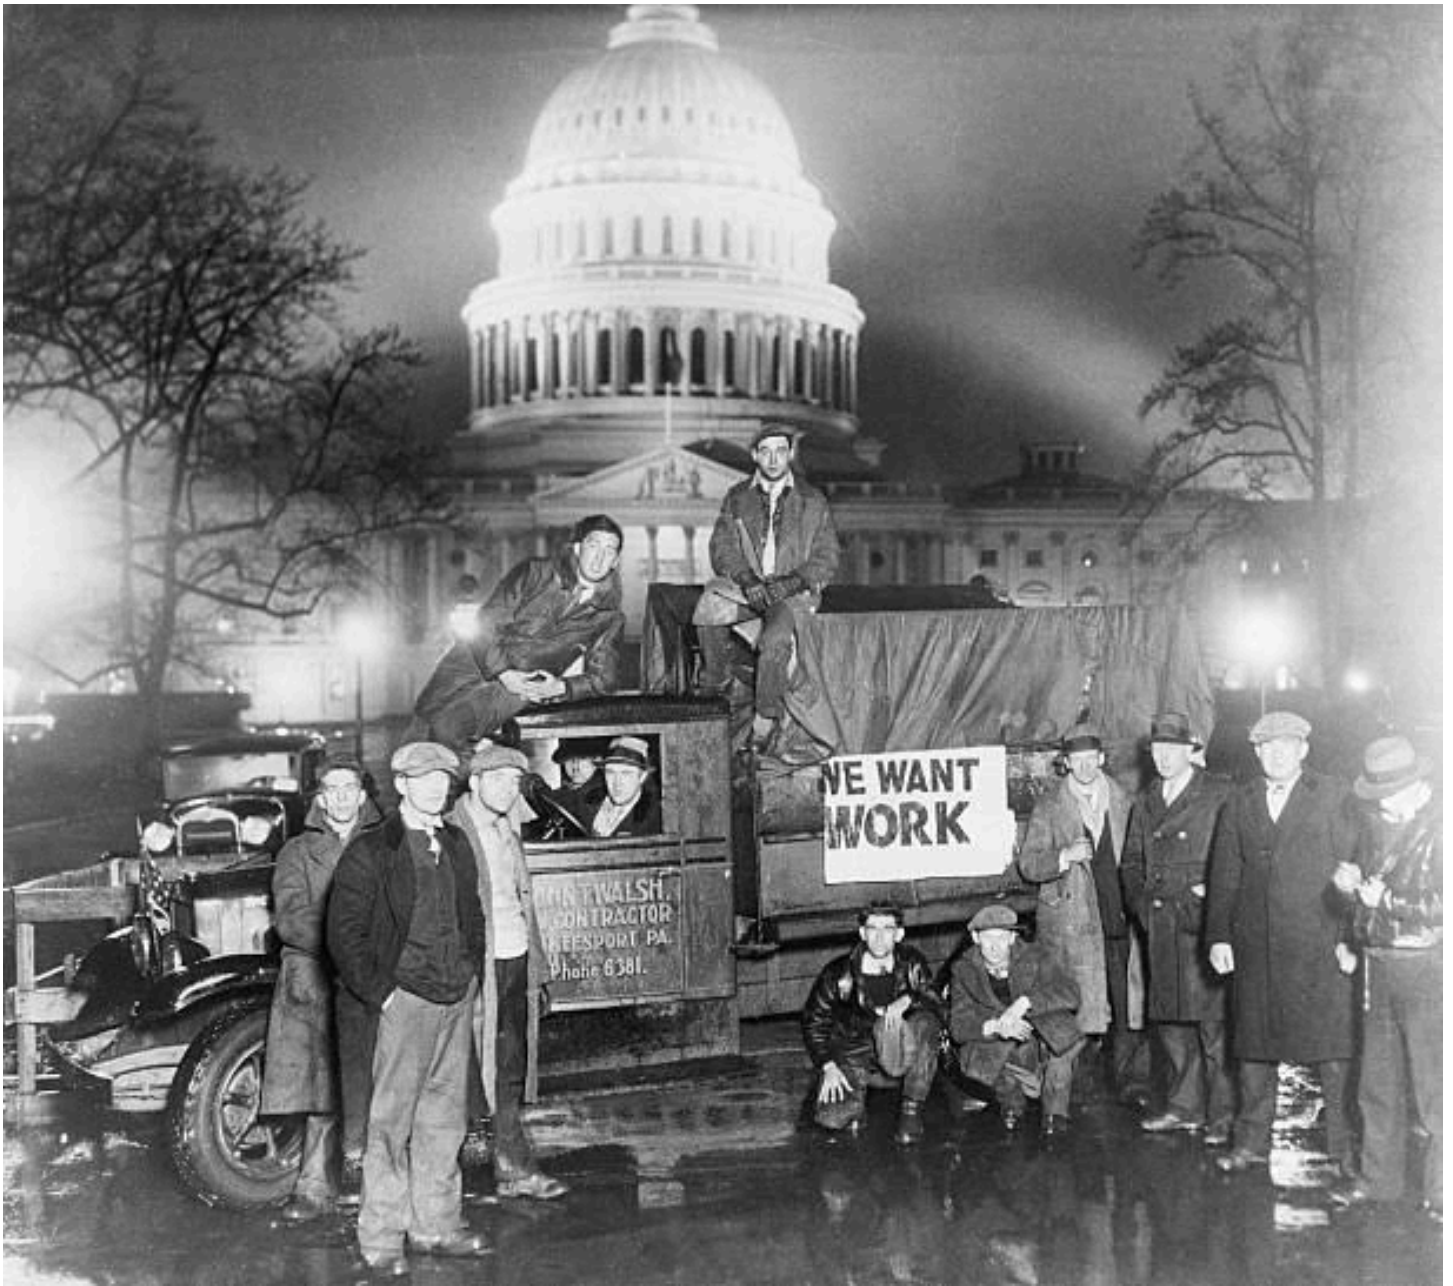

5.

Migrant Mother by Dorothea Lange

A poverty-stricken migrant mother (Florence Owens Thompson, 32) with three young children gazes off into the distance. This photograph, commissioned by the FSA, came to symbolize the Great Depression for many Americans.

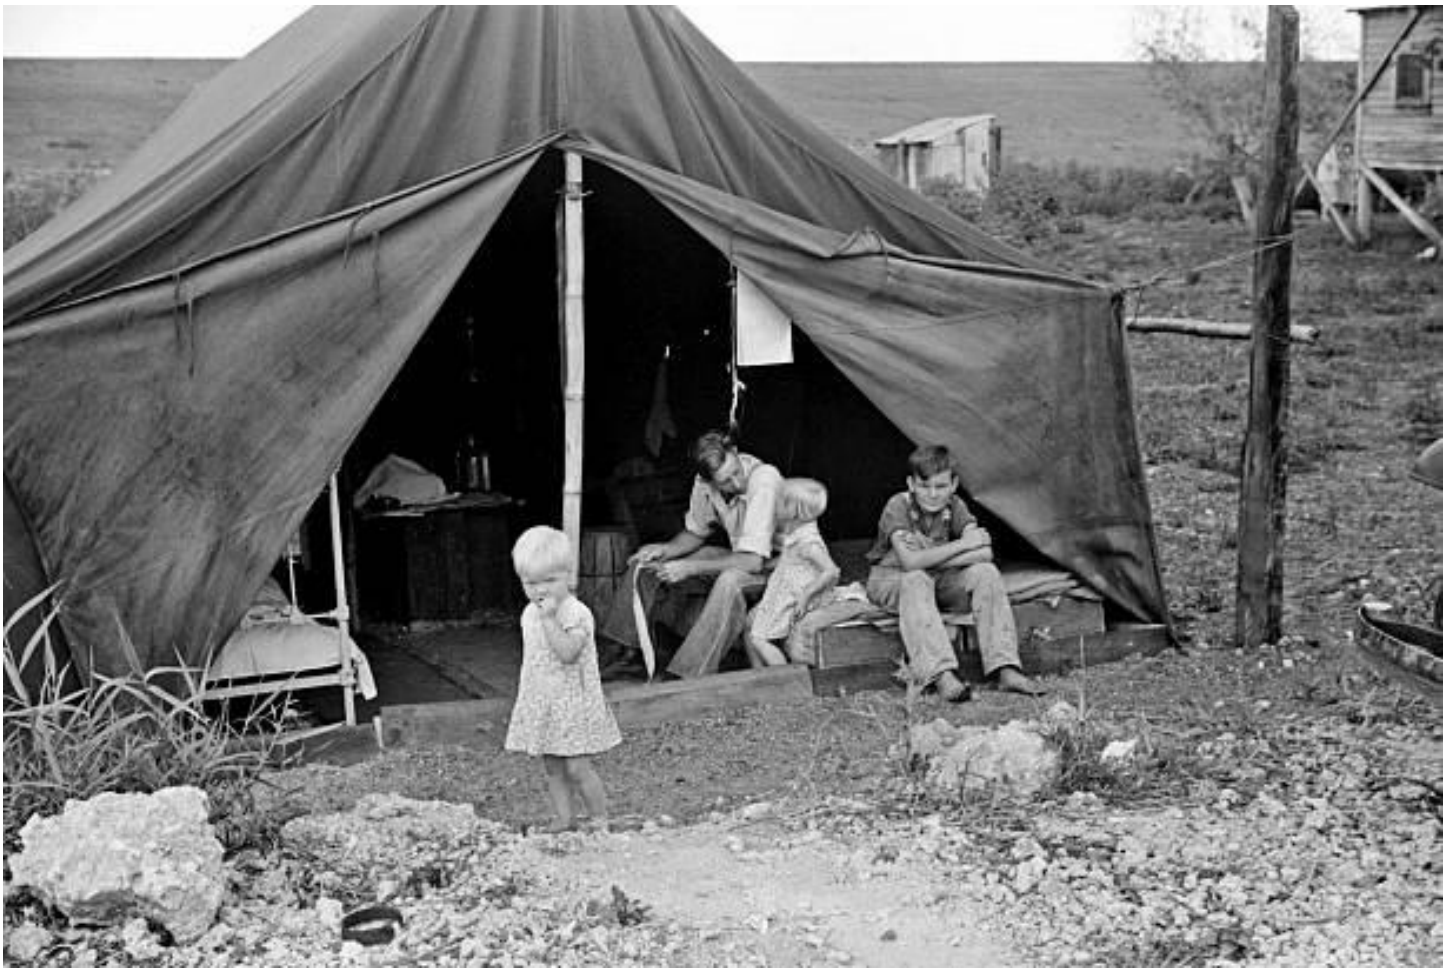

6.

Truckload of Unemployed Men at the White House

Unemployed men arrive at the capitol in Washington DC by the truck load to appeal for Federal Aid.

7.

Migrant worker with his children living in a tent.

Migrant worker with his children living in a tent during the American Great Depression. (Photo by Universal History Archive/UIG via Getty Images)

8.

Migrant Mother Of Five

A migrant mother of five from Oklahoma, who has found work picking cotton near Fresno, California, November 1936. (Photo by Dorothea Lange/FPG/Hulton Archive/Getty Images)

9.

Oregon Or Bust

Vernon Evans standing next to his car on Highway Ten near Missoula, Montana. His family are on the way to Washington looking for work hop picking, the sign on the car reads 'Oregon Or Bust'. (Photo by Arthur Rothstein/Getty Images) 10.

Poverty in America; New York Shanty Town 1932

11.

The Great Depression

Florence Thompson (1903-1983) and her children - photographed by Dorothea Lange - at a temporary camp in California, USA, March 1936. (Photo by Fotosearch/Getty Images).

Hooverville Kids

Two young residents at a Hooverville shantytown in Washington DC. (Photo by MPI/Getty Images)