

Notice

It is hereby notified that the students of COR309 of 2023 batch are required to submit a term paper as Internal Assessment of the course. Detailed requirements of the term paper are given below.

Length of the term paper should be 750 ($\pm 10\%$) words.

Style: While writing the term paper, students should follow the guidelines laid out in MLA Style Center (<https://style.mla.org/>)

Format: Term papers should be submitted in handwritten format; sheafs stapled on the top left corner. MLA Style Center guidelines need to be adapted to the handwritten format.

Plagiarism policies as discussed in the MLA Style Center will also apply on the term papers. Any plagiarized paper will be evaluated with a zero [0] score.

Score: Total score for the assessment is 20.

Subject: The term paper will be an analysis of treatment of the idea of tradition as discussed in the selections in the Sub-unit I, Unit, I of your syllabus

Dateline: Last date to submit the term paper is 12 February 2024. The term paper should be submitted to the teacher in person.

For more details scan the following QR code

