

Carla Pastore

Waldwick High School
Language Arts

Email is the best way to reach me:

pastorec@waldwickschools.org

WHS Main Line: 201-652-9000 • Voicemail: x 5127

School Supplies for September

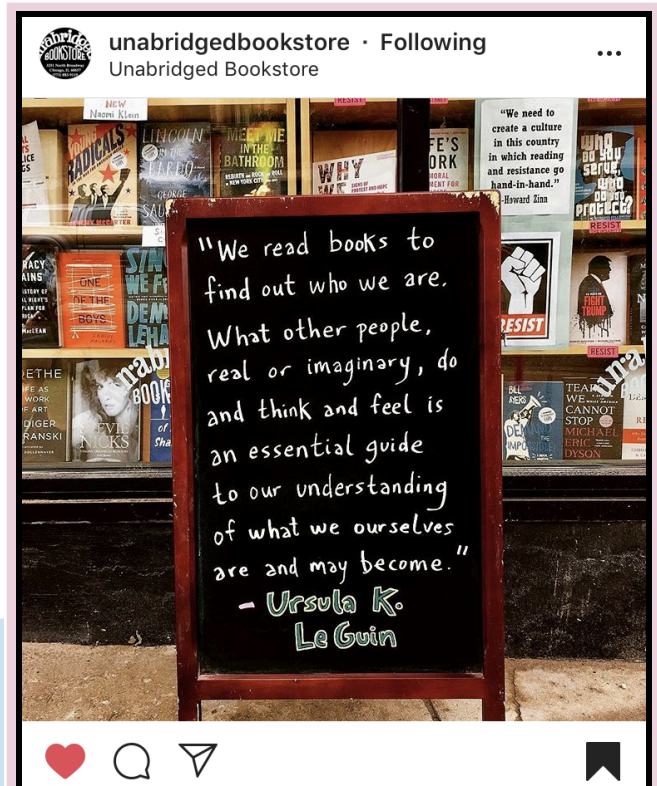

- ✦ Student planner or assignment book
- ✦ Marble composition notebook (100 page)
- ✦ 3+ different colored highlighters
- ✦ Post-it notes, pens, and pencils
- ✦ 2 glue stick sticks; 1 roll of scotch tape
- ✦ A Waldwick Public Library Card
- ✦ Headphones compatible w/chromebook
- ✦ OPTIONAL: Thin markers or colored pencils

Come Prepared

- ✦ Enter the classroom with an open mind and courteous attitude.
- ✦ Hold yourself accountable for your work and other responsibilities.
- ✦ There is a no charging policy in the classroom, so be sure to charge your device(s) before coming to class.

2025-26 Courses

- ✦ AP English Literature & Composition
- ✦ English 10 Honors
- ✦ Foundations in Entrepreneurship
- ✦ English 10 CP

Extra Help

- ✦ Mrs. Pastore is available for extra help after school in room 201.

About Mrs. P.

Mrs. Pastore has been teaching high school English since 2007, and has had the pleasure of teaching at all four grade levels, including AP Literature. She completed her BA in Literature, MS in Educational Technology, and MA in Educational Leadership at Ramapo College. While studying as an undergraduate student, Mrs. Pastore was an historical editorial research assistant on the Margaret Sanger Papers Project at NYU. Mrs. Pastore has also worked in publishing as the Publisher and Editor-in-Chief of her community's monthly and quarterly magazines for eight years in addition to being Managing Editor of RD&T's online magazine for three years. She was also an active member of the School of Humanities and Global Studies Alumni Advisory Board at Ramapo College, and served several terms as the board's president. Mrs. Pastore's other prior work experience includes advising the WHS student newspaper and tutoring, among other things. Recently, Mrs. Pastore became a Girl Scout troop leader as well as team mom and team manager/treasurer for her daughter's synchronized skating team.

P.S. Mrs. Pastore has a young daughter. They love to read together.

Photo credit: Mr. Opderbeck, 2018.