So to start with, I FINALLY WON SOMETHING, but now onto the real part of this doc. I joined sirens as a one last ride type team. There were ups and downs over the season but I love the players and coaches that were there every step of the way. Now it's the time of the season where I have to say goodbye. It's bittersweet but maybe we'll meet again later down the road, but for now here's a segment on each person that helped sirens take home my first ring.

Virgil - after I figured out who you were I knew we were going places. No matter the hero we needed you to play, you played it and never complained. Your cass, Ashe and soj were big caries and helped us throughout the whole season. I'll miss you man, good luck with your future teams AND HIT DIAMOND.

Aidan - The genji god. You weren't always around but when you were you were a mechanical monster. Your genji, tracer, soj, and cass helped us dominate in Grand finals. The ilios well moment still makes me laugh when I looked back at that clip.

Churd - The rock we needed. You always picked up comms when I was lacking in that department. You were a big reason we had a dominant swiss stage with your mei and pharah play. Even though you didn't play in grands you helped get us there, thank you man.

Nightingale - I knew we had synergy after the first week of trials. We butted heads a lot but I know you were just trying to have fun while winning. Your flanking style shaved a good 4-5 years off my life but you are the best FS I've ever played with. One day you'll get to play ilari.

Pheviewonder - We meet again my fellow gibbon. You were the mental rock for us. No matter what was going on you kept our mental nice and strong. Your ult tracking and fight planning was always on point and helped us 4-0 in grand finals. I'll miss you man, dont ajax anymore please.

Blue - There's not a mean bone in your body. We didn't eye to eye at times but you always cared about the team and about me when I fucked up my hand. Idk what else to say so PULSE BOMB JUMPSCARE

Null - Weren't always there but you helped us come back from a 1-3 deficit. If you weren't there we probably don't make the come back. You never gave up on me and always held out hope that I could turn things around. Thanks for everything.

NCR - Your work schedule made it so you couldn't always be around but when you could be you were the comedic relief we needed at times.

Kingpin - You were the main reason I learned to feed my entire health bar. You helped me improve my tank gameplay and team play. Thanks for all the vods man

There's so many other people I could thank but if I wrote out more individual paragraphs I'd be here till next season of SPCS. With that being said a big shoutout to: Goopdagoo, Gonebanazas, Water, Funjin, Mr Box, Lorer, the entire ignition pyro roster for all the warm ups and beez nuts cause weezy is on that team. Thanks for an incredible season.
