

SL: (no sl yet ill think of it rn cuz i have to go for a while)

Hello, No Idols Tattoo,

Not that long ago, while I was looking through different tattoo studios in New York City, I stumbled across your saloon, and I must say it surprised me because it has a completely different approach.

The fact that you accept all the walk-ins as well as offer free consultations can easily make you stand out from the whole competition. Also, I gotta say that the artwork is well displayed on the website making a lot of potential customers interested.

But if you want to stand out, you also need to do certain things that your competitors do, so your customers don't lose out on it, and what I'm talking about is an email list.

It's important to have because it creates a possibility of convincing potential customers that this is the best place that they can come to,

While also telling them that they should take action because it will help them with what they want to achieve, in this example: better looks, or expressing themselves better.

Just having an email list and regularly sending emails to people on the list will increase the number of people coming in every week.

Another advantage of it is that it doesn't require you to take any risks.

And as an online marketer, I can help you create it and then take advantage of it.

When you decide that you're interested, Let's schedule a quick Zoom call to talk about the details.

Best regards,

Antoni.

Ps. In the attachments I've linked a landing page (which is part of the email list) that I have made for another client.

SL: One post is all it takes

Hello, No Idols Tattoo,

Not that long ago, while I was looking through different tattoo studios in New York, I stumbled across your saloon, and it surprised me because it has a completely different approach.

The fact that you accept all the walk-ins as well as offer free consultations easily makes you stand out from the competition.

I've just now finished analyzing the "First class tattoo" email sequence so I'll be able to significantly increase the number of people coming in every week, and I can help you create it.

It's important to have because it allows you to convince potential customers to come to your salon and get a tattoo.

When you decide that you're interested, Let's schedule a quick Zoom call to talk about the details.

Best regards,

Antoni.

Ps. In the attachments I've linked a landing page (which is part of the email list) that I have made for another client.