Commission process:

First Stage:

Remember to read the Terms of Service before you send a commission request. After you've sent your commission request to my Instagram, expect me to reply within a week.

Second Stage:

I will complete a colored sketch of your desired commission and will ask you for revisions. After having this stage confirmed, asking for major adjustments for the pose and composition will not be allowed. I will then ask for the payment through Paypal.

Third Stage:

I will complete the rendering of the overall piece and will ask you for minor revisions. After having this stage confirmed, the commission will be announced as finished and will be delivered to you in email as a png.
