Labels, Values, Parties, & Beliefs Mapped on the U.S. Political Compass

	Economic left	Commonalities		es	Economic right
S	• Labels: liberal, progressive	• Labels: authoritarian			• Labels: capitalist, conservative 0	• Parties: democrat, socialist, labor	• MO: hold civil propriety			• Parties: republican, neocons c	• Iconic dress: business casual,	• Values: Loyalty,			• Iconic dress: business suit or uniform i	police or military uniform	obedience, rule of law,			• Stereotypes & tribe identifications: a	• Stereotypes & tribe identifier:	social conformity			religious right, Wall Street financiers 1	law-abiding "pillars of society"	• Promotes: status-quo,			or business tycoons
•	• Beliefs: People's vote is	law & order, trade laws			• Beliefs: Strong government is C	necessary and useful to prevent	favor U.S., hierarchy			necessary to provide military 0	totalitarianism & maintain order	• Freedom = enforce rules			protection & structure for free market n	• Inequality occurs as result of	to exist safe from harm			preservation, better decisions by elite S	unequal starting point so need tax	• At worst extreme:			• Inequality occurs as result of variable e	& policy for redistribution	politicians gain votes by			ability and effort (natural selection) r	• $ policy: protect labor from	promising benefits to			• Expert vote (electoral vote) needed to v	exploitation; living wage = more	super-wealthy and/or			ensure informed & smart vote a	capital flow, redistribute wealth,	"underserved" (middle			• $ policy: promote GDP growth, create t	foster cooperation, globalist	class bears brunt), leads			jobs, foster competition, trickle down i	• At worst extreme: welfare state	toward totalitarianism &			• At worst extreme: "greed is good," v	overtaxes middle-class workers,	police state,			plutocracy, win-lose zero sum power e	parental "nanny state" reduces	concentrated power			dynamic, monopoly, corporate incentive for efficient work &	allows	allows surveillance and		scandal, power to buy politicians, self-sufficiency & innovation,		imprisonment of		income gap demotes middle class, ends in totalitarian communism	non-cr	non-criminal activists		impose moral absolutes of "tradition"
Co	• Labels: globalist, inclusive, collectivist		Centri		• Labels: patriotic, nationalist MO: compete m	• Values: emphasize mercy (leniency)		st Mode		• Values: Emphasize justice (death penalty) mo		eliefs: all are responsible for public good		• Beliefs: Individual is responsible for self nal	"my brother's keeper" MO: cooperation		rate	sufficiency, family support, & chosen allies itie	• Egalitarian (pro-underdog & underserved)		Third-		• Meritocracy (tolerates elitism & privilege) S	• Anti-racist, LGBT rights supporters,		positi		Accepting of class distinctions as natural pro-feminist, pro rights of aged & o		on,		h on illegal immigrants ("they take our
	• Welfare model: government run; f		syncre		or they need jobs (exploitable for $ gain) one size fits all, recipients don't ne		tic		are model: church & private designated as worthy, humane soci				nizations designate worthy recipients S	• Labels: pacifist, apolitical,	• Labels: individualist,			• Labels: alt-right 0	mutualist	anarchist, populist			• Parties: libertarian, tea party c ;	• Parties: green, independent	• MO: rebel, disrupt			• Iconic dress: baseball cap, camo, i	• Iconic dress: tie-dye,	• Values: self-governing, anti-authoritarian,			"blue collar" uniform or overalls a 1	counter-culture, tattoos	personal responsibility			• Stereotypes & tribe identification: 1	• Stereotypes & tribe	• Economic self-sufficient			redneck, prepper, manual laborer, L	identifications: spiritual, not organized religion, new age,	• Freedom = limited			rebel (i.e., Dixie flag), fundamentalist hippies, in touch with feelings	(small) government, less			emphasis on constitution (i.e., colonial flag), right to bear arms 1 b	• Restorative justice	regulation, states rights			• $ Pro balanced budget, less taxation, e	• $ Vote with your dollar	• Institutions: ACLU			unregulated open market r	• At worst extreme: rejection of	• Beliefs: distrust			• At worst extreme: fears UN as a	political knowledge or	institutions, conspiracy			harbinger of Orwellian new world 1	involvement, escapist drug	theories Worst: abuse			order, wants govt. collapse as a restart, 1 1	mvorvement, escapist arag	micorico viorsi, abuse			oraci, wants govi. comapse as a restart, of the most vulnerable eco-myths promote NWO culture, tragedy of commons