

Devaa Haley Mitchell - The Feminine Fire Empowerment

What You'll Discover in These 8 Modules

In this 8-part transformational intensive, Devaa will guide you through the fundamental spiritual skills and competencies you'll need to ignite your primal feminine energies to create a life aligned with your inner truths and powered by joy-filled aliveness, creativity, and love.

This course will feature teachings, training sessions, and experiential guided practices with Devaa. Each session will build harmoniously upon the previous ones so you'll develop a complete holistic understanding of the practices, tools, and principles you'll need to sustain your awakened ability to break through outdated beliefs, self-sabotage, and cultural expectations and live with more clarity, courage, and compassion.

Module 1: The Crucible of the Great Mother

There Is Only Love

The way of the Great Mother is the way of unconditional love. She is the foundation underlying all things, and she holds us in her open embrace.

As you drink in her love, you're given the support you need to stand in your own fullness. The Great Mother creates a strong foundation, allowing you to embody the full spectrum of the feminine — loving and bold (and sometimes, assertive and intense). All of who you are is welcome!!

In this first session, you'll:

- Discover how to source your feminine fullness from the overflowing, nurturing well of the Great Mother to help you feed your life with support and energy for all it brings
- Cultivate the skill of “empty presence,” where you learn to slow way down and enter the stillness of the cosmos, so you can truly hear the soft voice of Spirit and feel her nourishing presence and unconditional love
- Create the alchemical vessel for our work together by work with the sacred tool of the cauldron, representing the void of fecund potential
- Learn ways to be comfortable amidst the unknown, and how to simply allow the new and unexpected to emerge
- Create daily practices to connect to your feminine nature and sustain it

Module 2: Reclaim Your Primal Powers

Reconnect With Your Wildness, Passion & Strength

Imagine a pack of women, running wild and free through the hills and howling at the moon, deeply connected to their innate instincts, the Earth, and the age-old feminine energies inherent in the night sky. This primal Goddess energy dwells within all women — it dwells within you.

During the next two sessions, you're invited to remember and rekindle your untamed instinctual natures, including your sexual shakti powers, and to take new risks.

Your Goddess-inspired primal energies are very strong. And when you can set clear boundaries — including being comfortable saying NO — you can feel this power within AND open up space to “run free” to do the things to which your heart and soul are truly aligned.

During these two sessions, you'll:

- Give yourself permission to play by your own rules. Wild women don't sit at the table and play nice
- Learn how to listen to your body's cues, and use this deeper somatic connection to clear blocks to your creative flow. (You will be surprised how much this can fuel your life and your leadership!)

- Practice setting clear boundaries and saying NO regularly, freeing up the space and time to focus what your soul truly desires
- Draw from the transformative energies of Pele, the Hawaiian Volcano Goddess, and let her fire run through you to fuel your deepest passions
- Explore the shadows of your shame and guilt — and engage in a purification ritual to release these patterns from your cells, your organs, your memories, and your energy field
- Hear the story of “La Loba — Wolf Woman” and identify the places you have disconnected from your wild, passionate, instinctual nature — so you can reclaim them
- Gain freedom from caring what anyone else thinks of you — embracing your bold, Goddess-driven energies. Re-connect more deeply to your sexual shakti energy and pleasure practices to fuel your own internal fire
- Experience the liberating release of long-stuck energies, freeing yourself to live a vitalized, impassioned, and creative life

Module 3: Ignite the Creator/Destroyer Powers Within You

Breaking Through Old Patterns & Embracing True Freedom

The way of the Creator/Destroyer is the way of nonattachment. Embodying this fierce archetype helps you to break free of the shackles that have bound you — perhaps for lifetimes... to cut free of old beliefs, self-sabotage, and familial and cultural expectations.

As you release and transmute what no longer serves, you create fertile ground for manifesting the future you desire.

During these two sessions, you'll:

- Identify your self-imposed limitations, beliefs, and behaviors that stop you from stepping into your full radiance
- Get comfortable with cutting away the “dead wood” in your life, including habits, relationships, or ways of being that are not aligned with your truest and greatest expression

- Discover how to channel the potent destruction/creation energies of the Hindu Goddess Kali to initiate your own liberation and stoke your creative fires
- Work with the power of mantra, sound, and movement to release energetic chords and patterns from the cellular level, burning up in the fire in your own belly!
- Allow the fierce energy of Kali to move through your being and through your voice, allowing yourself to speak with Her fierce and bold energy — and get feedback on when others can truly feel your FIRE
- Participate in a freedom ceremony to release yourself from those limitations and obstacles that are blocking your personal and spiritual evolution
- Use the sacred tool of the crystal skull to help you clarify your intentions and focus your energy so you are able to manifest more expediently
- Develop practices to declutter every aspect of your life to clear the way for being and doing what you've always desired

Module 4: Awaken Your Initiator Powers

Arise From Speaking What's Polite to Speaking Your Truth

The Initiator represents a fierce face of the Feminine, inviting you to wield the powerful sword of your words — with determination and clear intention, while also maintaining an open and compassionate heart. Over these two sessions, you'll be guided in breaking through old, repetitive patterns and aligning with your deepest soul intentions.

During these two sessions, you'll:

- Claim the feminine superpower of speaking your truth in a clear, direct way — with your heart open

- Work with the sacred tool of the sword, calling you into greater alignment and integrity
- Use an inquiry practice to identify the places where you try to “control it all,” and commit to release your tight grip, so you can align with the divine flow of the Universe and call in greater than imagined possibilities
- Learn how to call others into their authentic ways of being
- Hone your ability to see your relationships, projects, and life with a discerning eye and to make “course corrections” when needed
