- Downtown Barrie: Historic brick-and-beam conversions and professional suites near Collier Street and Dunlop Street appeal to tech firms and professional services.
- Highway Corridor Offices: New builds near Cedar Pointe Drive and Hwy 400 offer ample parking and accessibility for a regional workforce.

Why Move Your Business to Barrie?

If you are currently leasing in the GTA, expanding to Barrie offers three distinct advantages:

1. Cost Efficiency: Industrial and office lease rates are typically 15-25% lower than comparable assets in York Region.
  2. Labor Force: With a population nearing 160,000 and top-tier talent from Georgian College, you have access to a skilled workforce that is tired of commuting south.
  3. Development Incentives: The City of Barrie and Simcoe County are aggressively pro-business, often offering faster permitting times than GTA municipalities.
- Industrial Leasing: 10,000 – 50,000 SF Warehousing & Distribution Centers.
  - Office Relocation: Professional services moving from GTA to South Barrie.
  - Investment Sales: Multi-tenant industrial plazas and retail nodes.

Neighborhoods & Nodes

- Innisfil / Alcona: Emerging industrial lands just south of the city limits.
- Oro-Medonte: High-value industrial flex space near the Lake Simcoe Regional Airport.
- Allandale: Transit-oriented commercial space near the GO Station.

Why Fall Might Be the Perfect Time to Sell Your Home in Canada

WHY FALL MIGHT BE THE PERFECT TIME TO SELL YOUR HOME IN CANADA

Although the leaves will soon change and the weather will cool down, fall is not always the first thought that comes to mind when selling a home. However, in the Canadian real estate market, autumn has some exclusive advantages to sellers that are almost always overlooked.
