

Worksheet

Video – Dr Who teaches Shakespeare

Watch the video and circle the correct alternative:

- 1- The two girls at the beginning of the video like / don't like reading
- 2- They think reading is for cool people / losers
- 3- At least, they've got a new / good teacher today
- 4- The teacher says: 'Morning / Afternoon' to the class. The students answer: Good night / All right
- 5- The teacher's name is Mr Norman/ Mr Logan. He is a Maths / an English teacher
- 6- The teacher wants to start reading page 56 / 53 from the poetry text book
- 7- The teacher is English / Scottish. He speaks English/Scottish.
- 8- The naughty girl says she can/can't understand the teacher because he speaks/doesn't speak English.
- 9- The teacher wants to read one of Shakespeare 's sonnets/plays.
- 10- The teacher knows/ doesn't know the girl's name. It is Lauren Cooper/Cooler.
- 11- Lauren wants to ask the teacher a question. So she says: Can/May I ask you a question?
12. Lauren's question is: "Are you the/a doctor?"
13. The teacher asks Lauren: "Doctor who/what?" (*)

1. Can you recognize any of the phrases commonly used for self introduction in this video?

.....

2. What do you think? What is the teacher like?

He is and good bad patient impatient nice funny strict demanding (choose two adjectives)

3. What about the girl? What is she like?

She is and

Kind nice good bad impertinent bold intelligent lazy complicated naughty (choose two adjectives)

4. How does the teacher explain what a sonnet is? Write down his words

5. What sonnet by Shakespeare does Lauren know by heart? Have you studied it? What do you remember about it?

() Doctor Who is one of the most popular TV shows on British TV. It is a sci-fi series. David Tennant, the actor who plays the teacher in this clip, was the protagonist of Doctor Who from 2006 to 2010.*