

B. Now, use your ideas from A to plan an outline for this four paragraph essay.

Remember - do not write sentences. just notes. You should spend no longer than 10-15 minutes doing this.

Outline:

Introduction General Statement Ideas:  Thesis Statement Ideas:
Body Paragraph 1  Topic Sentence ideas: Supporting Point 1: Paraphrased evidence (from reading): Analysis: Supporting Point 2: Paraphrased evidence (from reading): Analysis: Concluding sentence ideas:
Body Paragraph 2  Bridging Topic Sentence ideas: Supporting Point 1: Paraphrased evidence(from listening): Analysis: Supporting Point 2: Paraphrased evidence (from listening): Analysis: Concluding sentence ideas:
Conclusion (ideas only)  Restatement of thesis: Summary of main points: Final thought:

C. Now, compare your outline with your partner/group. Give each other feedback on how to improve the essay.

D. Use your outline to write the four paragraph essay.

--