

Final Reflection for CMS 210 Public Speaking

The purpose of this final reflection is to consider what you learned by taking this class. Please provide me with details. This reflection is worth 25 points and serves as your final exam. Have the reflection written and emailed to me (shawn.apostel@eku.edu) by Tuesday, December 11 at 12:30 p.m.

I think the best way to begin is by watching the first speech you gave in this class (you may also watch other speeches you gave if you'd like--just scroll down the page). Watch your group present and then scroll down to answer the questions.

When you gave the above speech, how did you prepare for a presentation? How confident did you feel when you were presenting? Were you happy with the speech?

Now watch your final speech. After you watch it, scroll down for more questions.

Compare this speech with the first (or earlier speeches) you gave. What changes do you notice? Have you changed the way you prepare for a speech? How confident did you feel when you were presenting? Were you happy with the speech? Do you feel this class helped you as a public speaker? If so, explain how.

Thinking back to your first group speech, did you notice a change in the way your group communicated? Do you feel that everyone contributed equally to this final speech?

What have you learned in this class that you feel was the most valuable to you? What should I not change about this class? What should I consider changing?

Please email your reflection to me (shawn.apostel@eku.edu) by Tuesday, December 11 at 12:30 p.m. Let me know if you have any questions.
