

James Brown

238 Broadway

New York

NY

United States

To

The HR Manager

XYZ Company

354 F 63rd Street

New York

NY 10022

United States

Subject- Food service worker cover letter

Dear

I'm happy to send you my resume for the position of Food Service Worker that is currently open at your company.

My experience in hospitality and customer service positions me well to contribute significantly to [Mention the name] and [Mention the name].

Please look over the following details from my professional background, which sum up the skills and abilities I can bring to this new position:

[Mention the number] years of experience working as a food service worker in restaurants that cater to tourists

A culinary arts associate's degree from [Mention the name of the school] of [Mention the name] a solid understanding of meat analysis, food sanitation,

Labor laws, and cost controls for food have a track record of creating effective working relationships with each team member and building relationships with customers that foster loyalty and goodwill.

My professional experience has taught me the patience and compassion needed when dealing with particular students.

I keep my enthusiasm for education alive by going to conferences that keep me abreast of best practices and evolving academic standards.

I've included a resume with more details about my experience and credentials.

As you can see, I am a Food Service Worker with a variety of experiences that would be a great addition to your team.

To discuss this position and the contributions I can make to [Mention the name] and [Mention the name], I would appreciate the chance to arrange a meeting with you.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter and the attachment in the interim.

Sincerely,

James Brown

[Handwriting signature]

[Mention the contact details]

[Mention here, if there is any post note to be]