

Module 6 Lesson 3
Guided Reading Questions

Acquiring New Lands

Main Idea: In the early 1900s, the United States engaged in conflicts in Puerto Rico, Cuba, and the Philippines.

Supporting Idea #1 Ruling Puerto Rico

What was the significance of the Foraker Act?

How did the Insular cases affect Puerto Rico?

Supporting Idea #2 Cuba and the United States

What did the Platt Amendment state (four parts)?

Why did the United States wish to attain a strong influence in Cuba?

Supporting Idea #3 Filipinos Rebel

Why did many Filipinos feel betrayed by the United States?

How was the Philippine-American War a costly one for both the Philippines and the United States?

Module 6 Lesson 3
Guided Reading Questions

Supporting Idea #4 Foreign Influence in China

Why did the Western powers seek to establish spheres of influence in China?

What were the Open Door Notes?

What were the causes and consequences of the Boxer Rebellion?

Supporting Idea #5 The impact of U.S. Territorial Gains

What did the reelection of William McKinley seem to indicate about the American public's view of imperialism?

What view of imperialism did supporters of the Anti-Imperialism League take?

Create and complete the diagram (Organize Information) from page 300 in the space below.