Welcome

- Hello, I am...
- Welcome everyone
- Join us for coffee hour

Today

We are observing the fourth Sunday of Advent today, but it looks a lot like Christmas with the amazing children in the Christmas Pageant! We have a large number of Christmas services beginning this afternoon right here at 4pm with the Christmas Eve Family Eucharist. See our full schedule for Christmas Eve and Day on page 19.

Looking ahead

In January (Jan. 7), we'll honor Martin Luther King Jr. with several guest speakers, and Civil Rights icon Ruby Sales as our MLK Sunday preacher. Learn more on page 22.

In 2018 we'll continue our exploration into Trinity's core values, with several retreats to Trinity Retreat Center in West Cornwall, CT, beginning in February (Feb. 23). See page 21 for registration information.

[Chairs - major increase in number of chairs for large crowds coming for Christmas services - have been getting feedback, are listening and working on the best configuration...]

Prayers

- If you would like to pray with someone confidentially for yourself or others
- Go to the altar during communion
- Someone will be there to pray with you

Offertory Sentence

Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and make good your vows to the Most High.
