7th Grade Boys Basketball

Attention all 7th grade boys interested in playing basketball this year. There will be an informational meeting in the media center this THURSDAY, December 16th at the beginning of 1st hour. The season begins the first week we get back from Christmas break, so it is important you are in attendance at the meeting. If you have any questions, please see coach Smith.

All A's Reward for 2nd Marking Period

This marking period ends on Friday, January 14. We will be taking any student who earns all A's bowling. Please make sure you are paying attention to your grades and putting forth that little extra effort to get your grades up if you are interested in participating in this fun event.

Red Cedar Basketball

Red Cedar Basketball practice schedules are in the office for the months of January and February. You can pick them up on the island counter.

Christmas Shenanigans (Hidden Holiday Figures)

Something is seriously wrong with Mr. Hudson's 3D printers. The holiday things he prints keep suspiciously coming to life. The little holiday figures are supposed to be on display on the desks of Mrs. Sandburn, Mrs. Andrejack, and Mrs. DeLorge, but they keep running away. He is offering a reward for their capture and safe return. If you see a red or white santa, blue or orange elf, or a green or yellow reindeer hiding around the school, please return them to the office. (They are NOT hiding in the office.) Good luck, and happy holidays. I wonder how much gorilla glue we have...

The students who captured the runaway figures yesterday were: Jenna Hilewsky, Emily Caswell, Lucas Talmantez, Josh Hilewsky, and Asher Parker

A Toy to Spread Joy

The CMS LEAD Club is interested in supporting some of our families this holiday season. They would like to encourage our student body to SHARE JOY BY DONATING A TOY. If your family would be interested in helping this holiday season, please send a new, unwrapped toy to the middle school. Our LEAD Club members will wrap them and donate them to already identified families. Thank you so much for showing your support this holiday season.
