Cypress Creek Junior Civitans

What is Junior Civitan?

Cypress Creek Junior Civitan club is a part of a broader organization that has been around since 1920. It's been almost a hundred years of this organization. Unlike other groups, this organization is global in Europe, Africa, Asia and in places where other groups have not even touched. Junior Civitan also helps to fight against diseases like Dementia, Autism, Parkinson's, and Alzheimer's we have an International Research center in Alabama that work 24/7 to find cures, prevention methods, and or coping methods. We love to work with Special ED students, host events, and help out in any way we can. Junior Civitan is also self-manageable by the youth which means the youth learns leadership Skills that will be useful in the future. This means that if you are interested, You can get involved on a deeper level and help organize events with the heads of the local Club.

So who is in charge? What are their duties to the Club?

Here The Officers and positions of Cypress Creek Junior Civitan
