Make a list of what was done that ought not to have been done and what was justified in light of the existential threat of the Soviet Union and communism. Basically take all the concepts and events we studied in this unit and categorize them in not justified and justified. This is where you review your notes from Lecture 8.1.

"To paraphrase an old prayer, it is obvious now that we have done some things which we ought not to have done, and that we have not done things which we ought to have done."

John Lewis Gaddis from The Age of Terror
