

Roofing Services From a Local South Easton Roofing Company

When you need roofing services in the South Easton, Pennsylvania, area, depend on Excelsior Roofing to provide you with the highest quality installations and repairs for your home or business. We are a family-owned and operated roofing company with more than a decade of experience in installing, repairing and replacing flat and pitched roofs for residential and commercial buildings in the region. Our knowledgeable and experienced team can help you find the best-fitting roof for your needs, providing affordable options with a 5- or 8-year warranty. We also offer a full range of services including roof repair, skylight installation, chimney repair and gutters.

Contact us today to schedule a free consultation or get a quote for your project!

Easton residents and business owners have relied on Excelsior Roofing since 2011 for professional, high-quality roofing installations and repairs. Our roofers are licensed, insured and bonded and have years of experience working on commercial and residential properties. We can install an asphalt shingle, metal, copper or slate roof that is durable, energy-efficient and environmentally friendly for a long life. We also have the expertise to handle all the necessary permits and paperwork for your new roof. Our experienced and dedicated team can make the roof installation process stress-free for you.