What a wedding!

Everyone loves a wedding, but people celebrate weddings in a thousand different ways. Here are some of the most interesting customs.

Before the wedding: In the Philippines, the bride and her assistants must all wear the same dresses. They do this to stop bad spirits from finding the bride and carrying her away.

At the wedding: A groom in Spain gives his bride her wedding ring and then a little money in order to show that he will work hard for everything they need.

At the wedding party: In many countries, the bride and groom both hold the knife in order to cut the wedding cake together. This shows that they will be a good team. In Scotland, people only eat half of the cake at the wedding. They keep the other to eat when the first child arrives.

After the wedding: In Palestine, the bride sticks some bread dough to the front door of her new home. This is to show that she and her husband will stay together all their lives.

Round the world, wedding customs are very different, but they are all for the same purpose: to put a man and a woman on the road to a happy future together as husband and wife.

Thank you for your letter in which you asked me about my beloved city; Nablus

Dear Samir

Best Wishes

Al Jame'a Street, Amman,
Jordan

Nablus is the second largest city in Palestine after Hebron in the south. It is to the north of Palestine, about 60 km north of our capital Jerusalem. It is sometimes called the economical capital of Palestine. It has a population of more than 150,000 people. They work in farming, trade and industry. It is well known of soap and kunafa.
