reportzmen-Yesterday at 11:36 AM I need you

wildboi-Yesterday at 12:15 PM
Hallo Hu dis

reportzmen-Yesterday at 12:17 PM
I was told I could corraborate the Merryweather story with you about Samurai Buyer You worked for them

wildboi-Yesterday at 12:18 PM
What do you mean by that? Is this about making an article about them?
reportzmen-Yesterday at 12:18 PM
It is

wildboi-Yesterday at 12:41 PM
I tried to send message but it didn't work work
Wait
I guess it's too long to message here

reportzmen-Yesterday at 12:43 PM

wildboi-Yesterday at 12:43 PM
I don't feel comfortable with the situation. He was fired in a bad way yes, but he has many issues with people with in the company such as he couldn't cooperate and he had arguments. I don't know of any other issues since I only work from my home country and havent worked at that company properly yet. After he was fired he told me such things as that they don't want to pay me and at that moment I got upset and worried but actually it was always the plan for them to give me my first payment this month on the 15th. When I asked another member of the company about him saying they didn't want to give me money she was shocked because from their perspective, they were so happy with my work and In fact felt bad about not giving me money but because of the arrangement the first month was a trial. I even pushed not getting money for first month because I don't have qualification. This situation is a mess. He was fired in an unfair way sure. But it's important to not forget he was only on there on a non permanent basis so firing him any time was not particularly against any rules. He had been working there for about a month and I think he's on a working holiday not working visa. They had every right to let him go. If he had became a permanent member of the company he wouldn't be able to fired in such a a way. I get that he's upset and had a right to be and it would be great if the company could apologize and maybe give him extra money to help now that he doesn't have a large income, but trying to destroy a company is over the top and I'm not sure if its anything more than just revenge. He seems to also think that his work was stolen because he came up with the misaki meme box. I can get that he is upset being fired after coming up with someone that became successful but when you work for a company and get fired, the sad truth is yea you did work them as you were meant to, but now it will feel for naught. They in no way fired him specificay coz he came up with a thing and don't need him any more. The actual reason they fired him was because he broke company policy. This was more the tip of the iceberg of problems they had with him and so this was the final straw. I'm upset that he was teachnicslly told it was ok promote his twitter. But this was a long time ago and when I expressed to the ceo that I was upset that he was fired for it, he told me that we'll, it was the final straw and the fact that he had received permission to do it wasn't even confirmed with me and that was only a conversation between misaki and Merriweather. I thought because technically he thought it was ok it isn't fair to be fired, but then again they had other reasons to want to fire him. This whole thing is an unfortunate situation, but not one that warrants destroying a company. A few bad calls were made and Merriweather got mad. The story isn't even finsihed yet it'd barely need 2 days since he was fired. Consider that there are two sides to the story and I noticed Merriweather is a bit manipulative. When he asked me to make a statement to I tried to be unbiased but he was like wtf change it!

Thank you so much for this

wildboi-Yesterday at 12:49 PM

Another issue was that he was running the twitter kind of crazily. He seems adamant that misaki in the beginning told him to run it funny and meme. So that trying to say that he was too racist is incorrect but this isn't true. Another member of the company showed me a screen shot where she said they she thinks hes taking it a bit to far and he basically told her that he is going to run it how he wants to. While I'm not against crass jokes and rascist jokes, when it's on a company Twitter there is a bit of a line you're crossing when you say "let me see how that floppy pussy smells like count me in nigga" not that I personally have a problem with it. But the fact they asked him to cool it a bit and he didn't listen. This is a company and he can't just do what he wants

reportzmen-Yesterday at 12:50 PM

Woah woah woah

What in the actual fuck here?

Merryweather did this?

I never heard any part of this

wildboi-Yesterday at 12:51 PM

He he's been probably only saying his side

Don't say anything to him about it cos he will attack me

But I really wanted you to hear the unbiased story

I'm taking a break from the company now but they are still going to pay me as promised

They understsnd and are happy for me to contienue doing work any time because everyone is really happy with my graphic design ability

My experience up until this point with Samurai Buyer had honestly been amazing and the only issue I actually had was with him being a little rude and another member of the company who was a little but blunt but other than that. Merriweather would often be super nice and the moment there was something he didn't like he would kind of come at you. Like he made a joke saying "no China bootleg" on the company Twitter and I tweeted back saying "um but I can see you sell China boots for my leg" and he privately messaged me like wtf don't say that fucking shit. I tried to argue it's clearly a joke and he was like mate listen to me

A clarification, misaki did it in fact tell Merriweather to run the twitter to be funny and a little bit meme ya know. But what isn't true is him trying to say that gives him the right to go fucking hard

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:00 PM

Holy shit

This is amazing

wildboi-Yesterday at 1:01 PM

What do you mean by that?

I was worried he was only telling his side from like just anger

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:02 PM

Like, the whole otherside I didnt know about

I get that but that would have put me into a cataclysmic shitstorm with my editor

wildboi-Yesterday at 1:02 PM

Yea he kind of needs to stop honestly. I really feel for him being In this situation. But destroying a company is fucked

There's no doubt the way he was fired wasn't fired well. The ceo himself told me he understands he didn't communicate enough.

But they still had many reasons to wanna let him go and he didn't fit in well it seems

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:04 PM

I get the feeling the company is in the right at this point on this particular situation

wildboi-Yesterday at 1:04 PM

Yes me too.

He wants to expose them as being shady too but it's not true they are no more shady than any other company lol

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:04 PM

The money however, unless stated otherwise in a contract or some sort of NDA that I don't know about, is fucked

Lol.

wildboi-Yesterday at 1:05 PM

What is it?

What money do you mean. His pay?

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:05 PM

Them not paying him

wildboi-Yesterday at 1:05 PM

But they aren't not paying him. They are paying him on the 15th. Everyone is payed on the 15th that's the monthly pay day

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:06 PM

.....

wildboi-Yesterday at 1:06 PM

I think he got paranoid they are trying to get out of paying him

But they wouldn't do that

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:06 PM

Jesus fucking shit christ

wildboi-Yesterday at 1:07 PM

I noticed he keeps going from being super mad and like I'M GOING TO DESTROY THEM and I'll be like is that really a good idea, you should wait till they pay you and he's like yea do you think I'm stupid that's what I'm going to do

I'm glad you contacted me because the other time I tried to express my opinion he wants me to sent it through him then to you and he just made me change it to basically only confirm he worked therd

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:08 PM

I thnk this whole situation just shit it's own bed

wildboi-Yesterday at 1:08 PM

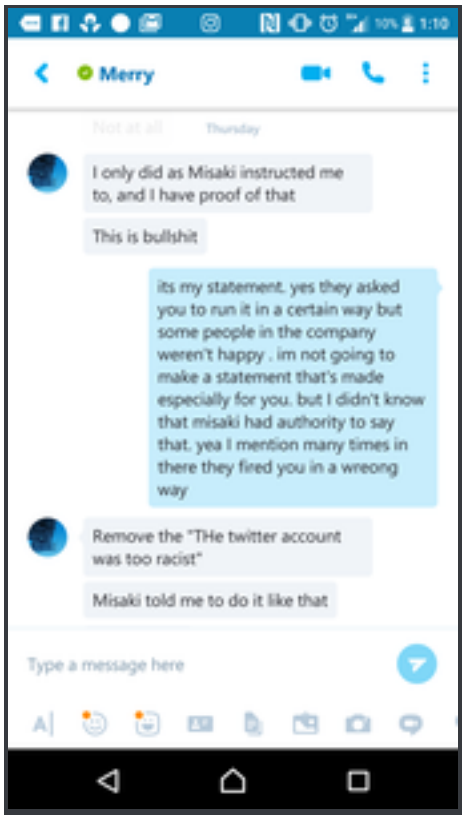

He wanted

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:08 PM

Yeah, thats not good.

That's actually a really shitty thing to do. Thank you for letting me know all this.

wildboi-Yesterday at 1:10 PM

This is a convo after I sent the statement him telling me what's wrong about it and to change it

He's already told some you tubers about it it looks like. I worried they are gonna be so swayed when he is telling only his story

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:15 PM

I think I'm going to have to do something about that.

If you don't mind.

wildboi-Yesterday at 1:17 PM

He told Aki dearest it seems

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:17 PM

I have no idea who that is

wildboi-Yesterday at 1:18 PM

A you tuber

Who works with samurai buyer sometimes promoting their products

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:20 PM

Well I'm gonna have to shut that shit down

That cannot be a thing that happens

wildboi-Yesterday at 1:29 PM

I worry if you Shut him down he'll just find someone else. He's been looking for ppl on Twitter to tell the story to. It might make him just go even harder lul

reportzmen-Yesterday at 1:36 PM

That's fine. I know far too many poeplein this industry. Once this gets out, he's kind of super fucked

That's unbelievably bratty on his part to try and burn someones house down just because they wouldnt let him borrow a cup of sugar

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:19 PM

im glad that he isn't completely stuck because he also gets 650 a month through patreon for his comics he produces, I don't know how much of that has to go to the artist he comissions but he isn't compltely stranded in a different country. and he still should get this months pay from samurai buyer

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:20 PM

He commisions an artist?

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:21 PM

yea. it confuses me a bit to. I i think he does the writing and all of that and then just works with an artist. on his page somewhere he linsk to the artist. maybe on his twitter

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:21 PM

so wait.....is he not aan artist?

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:21 PM

https://twitter.com/Parorou

Twitter

this person does all of the art for the comics it seems

"I draw things ! Artist of The Crawling City, creator of Aria Wintermint ☆" he links to this twitter on his own tiwtter

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:21 PM

What in the actual fuck

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:22 PM

they from chile

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:22 PM

Yeah, I know them. I can't believe I never connected the two

He is messaging me a bunch of irrelivent stuff right now about bought reviews and fake likes

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:24 PM

what is a bought review mean? if agreed samurai buyer sends items for free and you tubers review it. samurai buyer has quite a name for itself tahnks to idubbbztv and so its a win win. simple business transaction

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:25 PM

Yeah, I don't really know what he's getting at but I understand the concept of buying fake reviews for a facebook page and what not

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:27 PM

oh ok is that what he means. I noticed there was a bad review on the facebook page by a customer having trouble but come on. everyone knows that people only really review something if theyre mad. I have no idea about fake reviwws but samurai buyer has enough poople knowing about the company (for example the idubbbztv videos about samurai buyer have a shit ton of view) that i wouldn't be suprised if there are plenty of genuine reviews there. Another youtuber Mimei just tweeted recommending samurai buyer to someone so they are a trusted company

I don't know if you know idubbbztv but he has this whole thing where hes an asshole, but not in a serious way. Samurai buyer is one of the only companies he sponsors and all the comments are positive. I think if it was a shady company not offering a good service enouguh people would have found out by now

Yeah, I see that

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:34 PM

it was nice for you to reach out thanks, how did you find me? Did he tell you my username? I couldn't feel right if he was able to just make a shitstorm without someone being able to hear the whole story.

so i feel better about the situation now

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:35 PM

I actually asked on the channel and after getting through all the Chad bullshit I was directed towards you

Thank you, It was very nice of you to offer this information. This clears a lot of things up

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:36 PM

oh shit lol thats good. I actually deleted a comment i had posted there and was then pinned. it was soon after he was fired and he had told me a lot of things which made me feel upset so i wanted to tell everyone my situation and back him.

i don't even get what they mean by chad i must be out of the loop. All these people pretty much are on his side in the chatt

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:38 PM

Yeah, well they're youngand.....stupid

I don'tget the chad thing either. It'ssome dumb ass joke

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:38 PM

he just posted the chat onto his twitter, so imagine hes trying to get more people to come in and talk about the samurai buyer situation

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:39 PM

What chat?

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:39 PM

the samurai buyer discord chat.

the one you found me from it was originally the smauri buyer chat and he change it to say 'unfollow samurai buyer' and made it a place to tell all about this stuff right after he was fired

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:40 PM

He'sposting a bunch of people talking like idiots

Does he know that he can be sued for slander?

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:40 PM

I am not aware how it works in Japanese law he said many times that he pays 300 a month so he has full legal protection from his home country. he thinks hes so powerful

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:42 PM

That doesnt make any sense

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:42 PM

i don't understand it

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:42 PM

he's not a diplomat

thats because it's fucking retarded

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:43 PM

btw he can't speak any japanese at all. part of his anger within the company might be a personal issue with not being able to feel like he can fit in. Japanese companies work quite a bit different.

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:44 PM

Then why did he go there

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:45 PM

not sure but i guess its because he likes anime. im kind of a weirdo i speak pretty fluent japanese (ive pass N2 with 80% and am studying for N1 which is the top) and I feel indifferent to anime. Definetely like it but not obsessed. if anything it just feels normal coz ive studied japanese for 9 years

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:46 PM

Thats fucking cool. My little girl would think you're the coolest person inthe world

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:46 PM

Haha

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:50 PM

Wow, he really does think that highly of himself

That's.....upsetting

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:51 PM

it's like what hes saying is technically true. the way he puts it is very manipulattive to people who don't know the full story. like i said the way he was fired i agree is pretty shitty he also didn't work for 'months' it was round about a month exatly i beleive

reportzmen-Yesterday at 2:52 PM

Yeah but after what you've told me it seems pretty god damn understandable on the companies part

wildboi-Yesterday at 2:52 PM

he had done work before moving there tho i think someone needs to stop this guy. lul. but no one knows what to do. at least you should keep his chats for evidence incase anything more happens

wildboi-Yesterday at 3:16 PM

you can see in the image he posted now that he is going to get the money as was alwasy the plan but now his problem is that he wants it now

reportzmen-Yesterday at 3:16 PM

He just sent that to me

wildboi-Yesterday at 3:16 PM

how can he think that is acceptable or prove his situation correct tanaka is the ceo by the way

reportzmen-Yesterday at 3:17 PM

I gathered

He just told me that the person is not japanese because they lived in Australia and they speak perfect english and have been westernized

wildboi-Yesterday at 3:19 PM

misaki is japanese. i think half but he speaks perfect native japanese, and his english is a second language. i heard he spend a period in australia. maybe like a year or more im not sure but his english is not perfect at all he makes mistaks but he can also get by with his english. i have spoken to him thought skype audio many times and we mostly speak japanese but when he spoke english he crearly had accent and wasn't completely fluent but good he is defintely japanese as in clearly grew up in japan which i can tell clearly by his accent how does spending time in australia make someone not japanese ? lol. don't forget australia is very close to japan and its very common for them to travel there

reportzmen-Yesterday at 3:22 PM

It's alsonot west

wildboi-Yesterday at 3:23 PM

i am mad about how misaki tweeted from the company twitter to merryweather and agree it is a bit low. but i think that was misaki just being immature. I don't know what he was trying to do but agree it was wrong maybe they really did have that much of an issue with him. and after he said he was going to expose them misaki was probably mad too

reportzmen-Yesterday at 3:24 PM

Yeah, I think this whole situation is about to get really stupid

Expos them about what?

wildboi-Yesterday at 3:26 PM

thats his whole thing. he want's to 'expose' them and tell everyone they are a shady company who fired people and steals their work. paint that kind of picture. it helps that he has proof which makes his claims seem true

reportzmen-Yesterday at 3:26 PM

Wait what proof? Him being fired?

wildboi-Yesterday at 3:26 PM

he wants to put them out of business

reportzmen-Yesterday at 3:26 PM

Well thats not going to happen

He has 15 comics on taptastic and isnt even on the front page of most popular artists

He doesnt have enough reach and his followers in there are just fucking rickdiculous

wildboi-Yesterday at 3:27 PM

he has proof that for example, misaki told him he could post his comics, and proof that misaki posted from the comapny twitter. by making those claims and then proving them, it makes it very easy for the rest of his story to be beleivalbe too

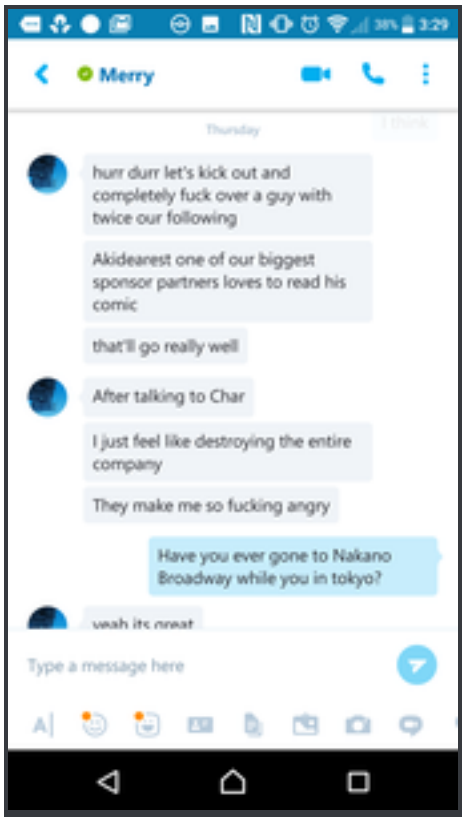

reportzmen-Yesterday at 3:28 PM

But with the information you've given me, I'll just shut that down right away.

The company may be scummy in some respects but I'm not going to stand by and let a butt hurt individual with delusions of grandure burn this place to the ground

wildboi-Yesterday at 3:30 PM

It's funny you mention that he doesn't have a great following coz here he clearly thinks he's better than everyone else and has followers and connections

reportzmen-Yesterday at 3:30 PM

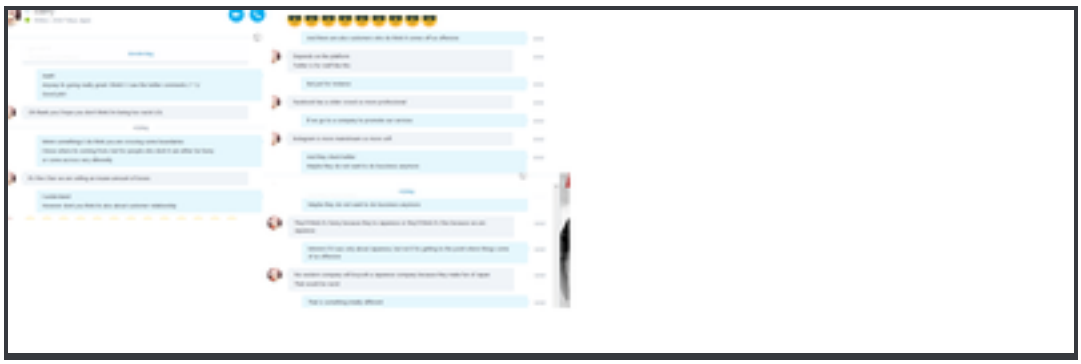

HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA

no

no no

wildboi-Yesterday at 3:37 PM

this is evidence another member of the comapny send me. it shows they expressed a concern for the twitter but as you can see he just wouldn't listen.

sent*

reportzmen-Yesterday at 3:40 PM

This is slowly becoming my favorite story of the year

wildboi-Yesterday at 3:41 PM

how can he say 'i hope im not being too racsit' she said maybe he is, he says um no

reportzmen-Yesterday at 3:44 PM

Lol

Is there anything else useful you can provide me for this?

wildboi-Yesterday at 3:44 PM

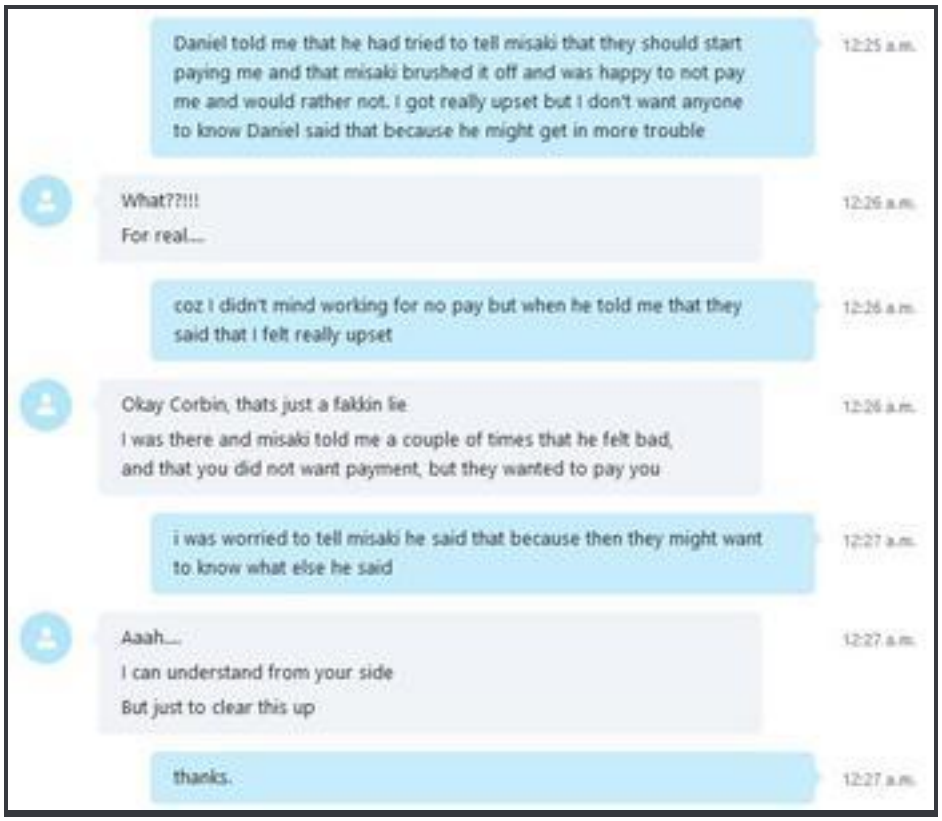

ill have a look

reportzmen-Yesterday at 3:44 PM

It all makes so much more sense now that I have the entire story

wildboi-Yesterday at 3:47 PM

after the fact i talked with a member of the company who has worked there for about a year i think. she is currently in her home country (some european country) so was away when he was fired. i don't know if it counts as proof since it was after the fact but i think this point may be useful i have been on a 1 month trial and asked to not receive pay. I had no experience for graphic design at that point so didn't want to get paid for something that they could get someoen more exprierneced for

wildboi-Yesterday at 4:01 PM

do you have access to photoshop? i can also send you the original phothsoip file to prove i make the banners on the samurai buyer website

reportzmen-Yesterday at 4:02 PM

Yes of course, but I do believe you. Just so we're clear on that

wildboi-Yesterday at 4:04 PM

thanks. if you look on the samurai buyer website and sift through the top carousel images, you will find one for attack on titan here is the original phothsop file that corresponds to that

https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B3j9YwTznQfKZksxLThMREk2UVE/view?usp=sharing

Google Docs

carosul image1.psd

about 7 out of the 10 of the carousel images on the home page are mine some are still left from before i started

reportzmen-Yesterday at 4:05 PM

That's really cool

You don't know about website design by chance?

wildboi-Yesterday at 4:09 PM

in the same way i didn't have experience with offically making banners I also didn't have experience with website design. I know only the basics of coding so HTML and javascript, but can't do anything sophisticated, maybe only make a few changes to something after looking up how. I have however since working with samurai buyer helped with a bit of website purely as design. I helped with the images on the misaki meme box landing page and colour. I also redesigned a tool on the site but it hasnt gone live yet . so this page here i helped with and also solved the issue of how to get paypal buttons to include a text box and designed the layout of the buttons.

Steve@mechawolf.com

E-mail that person

wildboi-Yesterday at 4:12 PM

why is that?

reportzmen-Yesterday at 5:14 PM

We need a Web Designer

I'm not sure how experianced a person needs to be
wildboi-Yesterday at 5:15 PM

I don't sure I'd be good for the job. I do part time cashier work and for the moment it looks like im going to keep doing banners for samurai buyer. Don't have any time at all.
reportzmen-Yesterday at 5:16 PM

Ahh

Well it was just a thought
wildboi-Yesterday at 5:17 PM

thanks though! Im saving for when i do a working holiday to japan in october so its amazing to even be offered an oppourtunity

wildboi-Today at 2:56 AM

He's written a long message that he plans to tweet and it's very easy to smyphathise with.

There is one point he mentions that I am absolutely done with tho " If you buy from Samurai Buyer's website you're automatically signing a terms of service that allows them to charge you a mystery amount of money 1-2 weeks later. The price you pay at first will not be the full price, and people have been charged as much as $50 for shipping, on top of the items price and the service fee."

Yea it's called shipping mate not some mysterious charge. When you buy from samurai buyer they buy domestically for you. They then sent the item out of the country to the customer which is very expensive and I don't know why people would expect interbational shipping to be cheap. Samurai buyer prefers to use SAL service which while being about 20 percent expensive than say e packet or ems, it is the most trustworthy and includes insurance on lost or damaged items. Customers wouldn't be happy with samurai buyer if the shipping services screwed up their order even though it wasn't samurai buyers fault now would they reportzmen-Today at 2:57 AM

What's this about not sending the item and then putting it into those boxes?
wildboi-Today at 3:03 AM

This is something that I have heard misaki discuss. Obviously with a lot of customers buying products there is the occasion customer who backs out and refuses to pay shipping or who knows. I am unaware of how returns work but I know that if samurai buyer has to pay for an item and it gets shipped to them and a customer backs out obviously they are left with a product. Misaki mentioned that the misaki box is a good oppourtinuty to make use of these items rather than waste them by including them in the misaki box and him and I discussed the possibly of removing the option box so that the Misami box is random rather than influenced by customer descisiion and advertise it as just a regular random box. I recommeneded to him that there are many box services but having one that allows customers to have a preference is valuable and will allow us to separate from the competition. So it was decided to leave the option for customer preference and put in the left over items as extras or when they happen to actually be requested. And business will try and deal with lost profits

Any* business

Especially since they are literally only making 5 dollars per transaction.

reportzmen-Today at 3:06 AM

How much does this place typically generate?

Also, merryweather only worked there for a month right?

wildboi-Today at 3:08 AM

Another member of the company mentioned to me that a large majority of customers are other Asian countries such as Hong Kong. This suprised me coz as far as Merriweather is concerned he has done everything for the company by building up the twitter and therefore is owed something. If it's true that the majority of customers are Asian then really his efforts aren't as worth as much as he thinks. I have no idea about profits but I think it's a little tight. They have however offered to pay for my flight to go there early but I wouldn't feel right about them paying so much money for me so I'm going to wait till my planned time. It seems he worked there for only a month but a member of the company mentioned this to me on Skype I will find it and screenshot. Also looking at the history of his own Twitter might show when he first got to fukuoka reportzmen-Today at 3:09 AM

Okie doke

Thank you

Wait, tight as in the company doesn't do well?

Merry seems to think that the guy is considering a $4000/month apartment

Which j didn't even know existed in Japan

wildboi-Today at 3:13 AM

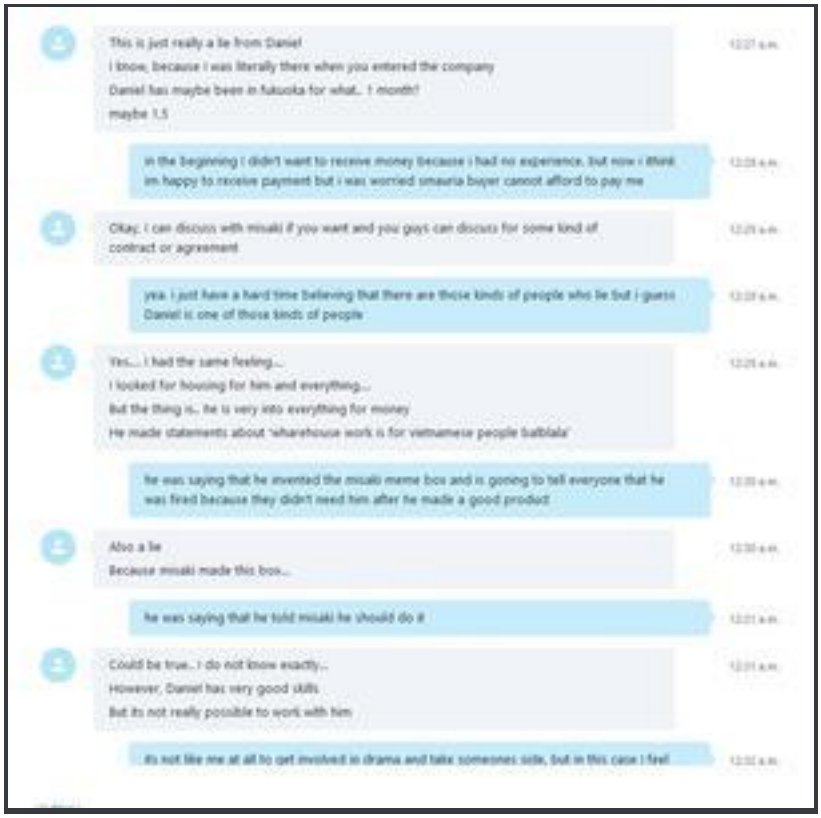

i have no idea. i was just assuming they were tight if they only make 5 dollars per transaction. about 4 people in the company , its really 5 i think but one lives in differennt country so proablky works on diff pay scheme some products they might be able to make a better profit on if they aren't through amazon

reportzmen-Today at 3:14 AM

Damn

wildboi-Today at 3:14 AM

reportzmen-Today at 3:15 AM

I just realized that merry really just needs people to validate his own thoughts..... damn dude

wildboi-Today at 3:16 AM

i actually just thought that an hour ago. its like he wants an audience

reportzmen-Today at 3:18 AM

It's getting creepy and I'm wondering what he's going to do when I publish my article

wildboi-Today at 3:18 AM

what is your article going to be about?

reportzmen-Today at 3:19 AM

It's just going to explain the reality of the situation and put the people that he surrounds himself with into the light to destroy what little credibility he already has

wildboi-Today at 3:20 AM

my plan was 6 months osaka (coz i have many friends there) and i will work at a convient store because i have ajapesne skill. 4 months in fukuoka and i will try working at the company for a bit. and then 3 months tokyo. if i still end up doing this and anything goes wrong in fukuoka i can easily come back to osaka coz of my support system im lucky to have there

reportzmen-Today at 3:23 AM

Don't worry about him. He just a spoiled child that got a dose of reality and the consequences that come with it. He didn't like that

wildboi-Today at 3:23 AM

thats exactly it you're so right

reportzmen-Today at 3:23 AM

He wants to read my article before I send it out

wildboi-Today at 3:24 AM

funny too, merryweather trying to say misaki is westertnised. today he had to get me to transalte a sentence into english, and he even showed me that he got a message from you and with his english ability, was unable to tell whether you were on our side or not. I had to explain

YEA OMG THAT he wants to read it before you send it oput... just like he wanted to read that statement i tried to make. he is so manipulative

reportzmen-Today at 3:26 AM

Well I'm an almost thirty year old man, I don't have time for that kind of shit. I write it how it is and that's the end of it

Oh, well let him know that I'm always interested in being able to talk with him and he has nothing to worry about with this merry weather thkng
